Haas, Amy Shuman, 2019-03-11 Across the globe migration has been met with intensifying modes of criminalization and securitization and claims for political asylum are increasingly met with suspicion Asylum seekers have become the focus of global debates surrounding humanitarian obligations on the one hand and concerns surrounding national security and border control on the other In Technologies of Suspicion and the Ethics of Obligation in Political Asylum contributors provide fine tuned analyses of political asylum systems and the adjudication of asylum claims across a range of sociocultural and geopolitical contexts The contributors to this timely volume drawing on a variety of theoretical perspectives offer critical insights into the processes by which tensions between humanitarianism and security are negotiated at the local level often with negative consequences for asylum seekers By investigating how a politics of suspicion within asylum systems is enacted in everyday practices and interactions the authors illustrate how asylum seekers are often produced as suspicious subjects by the very systems to which they appeal for protection Contributors Ilil Benjamin Carol Bohmer Nadia El Shaarawi Bridget M Haas John Beard Haviland Marco Jacquemet Benjamin N Lawrance Rachel Lewis Sara McKinnon Amy Shuman Charles

Training Centres Anne Flaspöler,2018-10-26 Peacekeeping training centres play a crucial role in preparing peacekeepers for their deployment However despite their popularity within the international community as a tool for achieving international security development and state building objectives they have not received a great deal of analysis or academic attention This book provides an in depth analysis of peacekeeping training in Africa tracing how centres have adapted to the operational and normative changes of peace operations over time and raising questions about the expectations attached to these training efforts and their impact The book examines training content and methods in detail exploring the potential of peacekeeping training centres as sites for socialisation and diffusing international norms in an effort to change and shape peacekeepers behaviour The analysis is based on two contrasting case studies selected to show the spectrum of training centres operating in Africa namely the Kofi Annan International Peacekeeping Training Centre KAIPTC in Accra Ghana and the African Centre for the Constructive Resolution of Disputes ACCORD in Durban South Africa At a time when impact is being determined by the number of course attendees this book provides an important critical assessment of training efforts and what they are supposed to achieve It will be of interest to scholars and practitioners within the fields of international security peacekeeping and African development Negotiating Peace Renée Jeffery,2021-03-18 A study of how and why amnesties for human
