These checklist sets are the EYF-ESF National Curriculum for writing. They are split into:

- Working Towards the Expected Standard
- Working at the Expected Standard
- Working at Greater Depth within the Expected Standard

All of the statements are progressive within and across the year so that the majority of pupils will be working on them each year group.

How to use the Checklists

The grid can be used to track the progression of individual pupils to highlight the progress of groups of children who are finding writing targets.

To help that a pupil is working at a standard in English, look across the grid for the school and where statements that are written for needed.

Working Towards the Expected Standard

Pupils can write sentences to form a short narrative about experiences (real and imagined), after discussion with the teacher.

beginning their sentences with capital letters and full stops beginning spoken words like pleasure and experience spelling words correctly and making phonically plausible if not spelling some common exception words forming lower case letters in the correct direction, using right join forming lower case letters of the correct size relative to one another using spacing between words

Year 2 Writing Ch

Working at the Expected Standard

Pupils can write a simple, coherent narrative about their experiences (real and imagined), after discussion with the teacher.

using common and some more complex exception words using an adjective (or two) and a verb using some punctuation (comma / full stop / exclamation mark)

beginning spoken words like pleasure and experience spelling words correctly

spelling some common exception words

writing capital letters and digits of the correct size, relative to one another and to lower case letters using spacing between words that reflects the use of the Year 2 Writing Checklist

Working at Greater Depth within the Expected Standard

Pupils can write effectively and coherently for different purposes, drawing on their reading to inform the vocabulary and grammar of their writing, after discussion with the teacher.

writing simple sentences, clauses and using linking connectives to link sentences using the full range of punctuation

beginning spoken words like pleasure and experience spelling words correctly and making phonically plausible if not

spelling some common exception words

writing lowercase and some more complex exception words using the appropriate and relevant punctuation to give letters in most of their writing

• These are divided in the school into writing the spelling appears in the national curriculum (English Appendix 1). Teachers should refer to these to identify the words that pupils should be able to spell.

• The school is progressive target in the national curriculum, which is divided into the grammar and punctuation appears in the national curriculum (English Appendix 1).
