Global Literary Studies Diana Roig-Sanz, Neus Rotger, 2022-12-05. While the very existence of global literary studies as an institutionalised field is not yet fully established, the global turn in various disciplines in the humanities and the social sciences has been gaining traction in recent years. This book aims to contribute to the field of global literary studies with a more inclusive and decentralising approach. Specifically, it responds to a double demand: the need for expanding openness to other ways of seeing the global literary space by including multiple literary and cultural traditions, and other interdisciplinary perspectives in the discussion; and the need for conceptual models and different case studies that will help develop a global approach in four key avenues of research: global translation flows and translation policies; the post-1989 novel as a global form; global literary environments; and a global perspective on film and cinema history. Gathering contributions from international scholars with expertise in various areas of research, the volume is structured around five target concepts: space, scale, time, connectivity, and agency. We also take gender and LGBTQ perspectives, as well as a digital approach.
