Alfred Stieglitz The Ashcan Artists And Their Engagement With Modernism:

Alfred Stieglitz, the Ashcan artists and their engagement with modernism Sandra Kuberski, 2014-12-15 Essay from the year 2011 in the subject Art History of Art grade 17 University of Essex Art History course Art in the USA language English abstract The aim of this essay is to compare and contrast Alfred Stieglitz's engagement with modernism with that of the Ashcan artists The first part concentrates on the personal background of the artists and introduces to their motivations and aims The second part deals with the subjects of their works and the different technical approaches The last part of the essay examines the differences between the two art forms photography and painting Of course the question arises whether or not such a comparison is reasonable photography and painting are two entirely different art forms The essay will face this basic difficulty and will conclude in an answer on it

Picturing the City Rebecca Zurier, 2006-09-06 Zurier vividly locates the Ashcan School artists within the early twentieth century crosscurrents of newspaper journalism literary realism illustration sociology and urban spectatorship Her compassionate study newly assesses the artists rejection of genteel New York their alignments with mass media and their innovative ways of seeing in the modern city Wanda M Corn author of The Great American Thing Modern Art and National Identity 1915 35 If the Ashcan School brought a special and embracing eye to the city Rebecca Zurier in her richly contextual and impressively interdisciplinary book explains and evokes that historically specific urban vision in all its richness Finally in Picturing the City we have the study these painters have long deserved And we gain new and delightful access to New York City at the moment of its emergence as a compelling embodiment of metropolitan modernity Thomas Bender Director International Center for Advanced Studies New York University Picturing the City is both meticulous and wide ranging in its assessment of the Ashcan artists and their passionate efforts to represent New York It charts their pleasures and problems warmth and prejudices generosity and differences originality and formula It takes seriously their habits as journalists and provides the most complete sense of their immersion in a world of urban spectatorship and vision Rebecca Zurier has written a wonderful timely book that will be a benchmark for any future discussions of them Anthony W Lee author of Picturing Chinatown Art and Orientalism in San Francisco Rebecca Zurier takes us on an intellectually exhilarating and breathtakingly beautiful visual voyage through turn of the century New York City as the Ashcan painters saw it As we watch them learn a new way of looking in the commercially dynamic sensual New York of a century ago we too see that time and place with fresh eyes Inevitably thanks to Zurier the way we look at city life today will change as well Lizabeth Cohen author of A Consumers Republic The Politics of Mass Consumption in Postwar America
