Anecdotes of destiny Tania Blixen,1958 Unspeakable Secrets and the Psychoanalysis of Culture Esther

Rashkin,2008-08-07 Winner of the 2009 Gradiva Award Theoretical Category presented by the National Association for the Advancement of Psychoanalysis Esther Rashkin argues that psychoanalysis galvanizes as no other discipline can an understanding of texts in their social historical and political contexts Demonstrating that close reading can be a radical political practice she exposes heretofore unseen ideologies concealed in works of film and literature from Last Tango in Paris to The Picture of Dorian Gray from Barthes's Mythologies and Balzac's Sarrasine to Babette's Feast Psychoanalytic concepts such as identification with the aggressor the cryptonymy illness of mourning and the phantom allow Rashkin to reveal how shameful and unspeakable secrets propel the narratives she examines In the process she convincingly makes the case for a new practice of psychoanalytic cultural studies a practice that fully engages with the politicized discourses anti-Semitism racism colonialism censorship that mark a text's location in history Four in a Family Enid Blyton,2022-08-01 In Four in a Family Enid Blyton crafts a tender exploration of familial relationships through the lens of the adventurous and harmonious dynamics between children and their parents The narrative weaves together exciting encounters and playful dialogue showcasing Blyton's signature style of vivid characterization and evocative settings This book not only encapsulates the essence of childhood innocence and the importance of kinship but also reflects post war societal values in mid 20th century England where family bonds were paramount in a rapidly changing world Enid Blyton one of the most beloved children's authors of the 20th century drew upon her rich personal experiences to inspire her storytelling Raised in a close knit family Blyton imbues her characters with a sense of wonder and mischief illustrated in their everyday adventures Her extensive career in children's literature is marked by an emphasis on imagination and moral lessons which resonates deeply in Four in a Family illuminating the complex yet simple beauty of family life For those seeking an endearing narrative that combines adventure with deeper themes of love and support within the family unit Four in a Family is highly recommended Blyton's timeless prose and relatable scenarios will enchant both young readers and adults alike encouraging reconnection with the joys of family and childhood The Gift of Story Emily Griesinger,Mark A. Eaton,2006 Despite postmodernism's skepticism about narrative the dialogue with contemporary fiction drama music and film demonstrates that the Christian story can engender and sustain hope Grand Finales Susan Gubar,2025-06-10 One of our most formidable literary critics explores how nine women artists flourished creatively in their final acts In 2008 academic and scholar Susan Gubar was told by a trusted oncologist that she had only a few years left to live Though she outlived that dire prognosis this brush with mortality refocused her attention on the boons of a longevity she did not expect to experience She began to think In the last years of our lives can we shape and change our creative capabilities The resulting volume Grand Finales answers this question with a resounding yes Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O'Keeffe Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age

Karen Blixen's Existentialism Lars Kaaber, 2023-10-11 This book investigates the writings of Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen from an existentialist angle Although it has not been subject to much study Blixen's writing elegantly and subtly integrates the ideas of Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Sartre in a way that makes the philosophers more accessible to a wider audience However Blixen also offers her own ideas of the fundamental problem in existentialism how to arrive at an authentic identity through free individual choices or as Nietzsche put it how to become who you are On the whole Blixen's authorship can be seen as an existential study of the 20th century and the ways by which Western culture came to be what it is now In agreement with Nietzsche's statement that all philosophy is an involuntary autobiography this book also contains accounts of the lives of the three philosophers chiefly involved in this study
