Desire and Empathy in Twentieth-Century Dystopian Fiction Thomas Horan, 2018-02-13 This book assesses key works of twentieth century dystopian fiction including Katharine Burdekin's Swastika Night, George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four and Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale to demonstrate that the major authors of this genre locate empathy and morality in eroticism. Taken together these books delineate a subset of politically conscious speculative literature which can be understood collectively as projected political fiction. While Thomas Horan addresses problematic aspects of this subgenre particularly sexist and racist stereotypes he also highlights how some of these texts locate social responsibility in queer and other non heteronormative sexual relationships. In these novels even when the illicit relationship itself is truncated sexual desire fosters hope and community.
