

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Teaching Students to Drive Their Learning Douglas Fisher,Nancy Frey,Sarah Ortega,John Hattie,2023-04-15 High levels of engagement it s not an impossible dream But to attain it we need to focus on what galvanizes learning and ensure we are offering the tools and mindsets with which students can lean in In this playbook an ace team of educators give us the goods to guide self starting learners Nine modules show us how to Coherent standards success criteria tasks and goals so students can travel clear pathways Offer tools that allow learners to recognize the gap between their current performance and the expected performance and select strategies to close that gap Talk with students about engagement as a continuum and that there are actions they can take to heighten their buy in to any endeavor Stress test our lesson plans to ensure students can discuss debate create and problem solve around highly relevant content Use lots of low stakes assessment and feedback routines to develop effective collaboration that doesn t depend on us Our job as teachers is to guide learning experiences that build knowledge and self efficacy But from there we need to stay on the sidelines and let students play Only then will they develop the muscle to persevere the strategic actions to excel and the confidence to make our curriculum the springboard of their own dreams and goals This Time Tomorrow Michael Jaime-Becerra,2025-06-25 Winner of an International Latino Book Award for Best Novel Gilbert Gaeta a forklift operator in a dairy can barely make payments on the house where he lives with his thirteen year old daughter Ana When a month of overtime shifts comes his way he begins to envision a new life one in which he can save enough money for an engagement ring and finally propose to his girlfriend Joyce He works the night shift exhausted but making good money and it s looking like his plan will work Then Ana is chased home from the Laundromat by bullies and she begins pushing him to buy a washer and dryer Gilbert tries to stay firm but when Ana s trouble follows her to school the pressure mounts to put her first and delay his future with Joyce Joyce who at thirty six has never lived on her own can t move out of her father s traditional Mexican house until she is married Feeling her life with Gilbert slipping away she starts to despair And then one day standing before her impressive collection of vintage purses she sees a way to take control of her future But it won t be easy Writing from three distinct and equally moving perspectives award winning author Michael Jaime Becerra tells a story about the painful balance between love and responsibility An intimate and poignant first novel This Time Tomorrow casts a new light on Southern California s working class and its struggles for happiness Research in Education ,1972
