Case Problems in Finance W. Carl Kester, 1997 The primary course for this book is the case course in Finance taught to all finance majors at both the MBA and undergraduate level This is typically a capstone course at the undergraduate level and either the first or second course at the MBA level Case Problems in Finance is a Harvard case course that presents real business situations that pose debatable alternative courses of action The cases contain problems that can be narrowed but not always settled by the usual techniques of financial analysis The cases are grouped by major topics financial analysis and forecasting cost of capital working capital management capital budgeting dividend policy debt policy financial execution and mergers and restructuring

Strategic Risk Leadership Torben Juul Andersen, Peter C. Young, 2021-09-26 This casebook extends Strategic Risk Leadership Engaging a World of Risk Uncertainty and the Unknown bringing theory and practice grounded in the first book to life with an array of applicable real world examples The book enables critical thinking about the current state of risk management and ERM demonstrating contemporary shortcomings and challenges from real life cases drawn from a global selection of well known organizations It confronts modern risk management practices and discusses what leaders should do to deal with unpredictable environments Providing a basis for developing more effective risk management approaches the book identifies shortcomings of contemporary approaches to risk management and specifies how to deal with the major risks we face today illuminated by a variety of comprehensive global examples It also provides valuable insights on these approaches for managers and leaders in general including risk executives and chief risk officers as well as advanced risk management students End of chapter cases illustrate both good and bad risk management approaches as useful inspiration for reflective risk leaders This book will be a hugely valuable resource for those studying or teaching risk management

Snack Food, 1994

Financial Accounting Robert W. Ingram, Bruce Baldwin, 2001 In this inspired new edition the authors illustrate accounting not as a set of technical procedures to be memorized but as a way of identifying and understanding business problems and a means for evaluating potential solutions Now in its fourth edition the primary goal of this text remains the same to teach students to understand a company's financial statement information This unique organization introduces students to how a business uses accounting information and then emphasizes activities of the firm in the second half of the book This engages students in the type of financing investing and operating decisions that a firm has to make The approach is especially ideal for students who will become users of accounting information because concepts not procedures are emphasized
