

Field Trip

By Aditi Sriram

Jeremy couldn't believe his luck. The morning of his 6th grade field trip to the Rose Center for Earth and Space at the Museum of Natural History, he fell ill. "This can't be," he thought. "Science is my favorite subject, and I'm not going to be able to go to the Museum with Mr. Connolly and my friends?" He pleaded with his parents to let him go to school anyway, but they were firm in their refusal. "The sooner you rest at home, the sooner you'll get better," his mother said. "Don't be so hard on yourself, champ," his father said. "We can always go another time."

"I won't be with Mr. Connolly and my science class if I go another time," Jeremy protested. "It won't be the same."

"It won't be the same if you're feeling ill at the museum either," his mother said, trying to reason with him. "Now take this medicine and go lie back down."

Jeremy closed his eyes as he swallowed the white tablet with a gulp of water. "What if I feel better before the field trip begins?"

"We'll decide then," his mother said, while his father nodded.

Jeremy returned to his bed, fuming. Even though it was sunny outside, he felt a black cloud hovering over his head, threatening stormy weather inside his brain and making him angry. But soon after he lay in bed, the medicine his mother had given him began working, and he fell asleep almost right away.

When Jeremy awoke, his room was bathed in darkness. Outside his window it was dark, too. What time was it? Had he slept through the day? Was it the next day? Was it the middle of the night? Jeremy was completely confused. "Mom!" he called out.
