

Classical Mythology. Lesson #1

Assess For

Define the following terms as they relate to this class: myth, classical, mythology (etiology).

myth – "story"

classical – "of or related to ancient Greece and/or Rome" mythology – the study of myths

List three reasons that we should study classical mythology for cultural literacy for its universality

for insight into how we (the students) have been historically influenced by classical thinking

List five original purposes of classical mythology to explain the unexplainable to establish order in the universe to order social interactions to explain or justify certain practices to describe ideal human characteristics

Define the following term: parthenogenesis creation resulting from just one gender

The English language has gained several words from the names and stories of the Greek and Roman deities. How do you think the following words relate to Classical Mythology?

Atlas – from Atlas who was sentenced by Zeus to hold the world on his shoulders chaos – from Chaos, a huge, gaping space, from which the universe began chronology – from Chronos (Time) eristic – from Eris (Strife); definition: of or characterized by debate or argument, or a person given to debate or argument
