There have been rapid developments in the psychological management of sexually transmitted diseases particularly HIV and AIDS. However, a significant proportion of those attending genitourinary clinics do not have a disease or infection but rather are seeking help with sexual health issues relating to behaviour, prior sexual experiences and relationships. Hence, as clinics become more and more generalist, there is a need to focus on behavioural aspects of disease. This is the first text to draw together the knowledge base and expertise of clinicians and researchers from all disciplines in the psychological management of sexual health. It presents advances in theory and practice in a practical way that will be accessible for all disciplines.

Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1985

The English Presbyterian messenger Presbyterian Church of England, 1849 Rock Art and the Prehistory of Atlantic Europe Mr Richard Bradley, Richard Bradley, 2002-11-01 Along the Atlantic seaboard from Scotland to Spain are numerous rock carvings made four to five thousand years ago whose interpretation poses a major challenge to the archaeologist. In the first full length treatment of the subject based largely on new fieldwork, Richard Bradley argues that these carvings should be interpreted as a series of symbolic messages that are shared between monuments, artefacts and natural places in the landscape. He discusses the cultural setting of the rock carvings and the ways in which they can be interpreted in relation to ancient land use, the creation of ritual monuments and the burial of the dead. Integrating this fascinating yet little known material into the mainstream of prehistoric studies, Richard Bradley demonstrates that these carvings played a fundamental role in the organization of the prehistoric landscape
