Bottom Line's Complete Book of Integrated Health Solutions Michael Castleman, 2000 Modern Mandarin Chinese Claudia Ross, Baozhang He, Pei-chia Chen, Meng Yeh, 2018-10-03 Modern Mandarin Chinese is a two year undergraduate course for students with no prior background in Chinese study Designed to build a strong foundation in both the spoken and written language it develops all the basic skills such as pronunciation character writing word use and structures while placing a strong emphasis on the development of communicative skills Each level of the course consists of a textbook and workbook in simplified Chinese A free companion website provides all the audio for the course with a broad range of interactive exercises and additional resources for students self study along with a comprehensive instructor's guide with teaching tips assessment and homework material and a full answer key Key changes to this new edition An increased number of vocabulary and characters introduced 255 characters are introduced in this second edition for active production Dialogues and example sentences are also presented in full character format for passive recognition and to provide additional challenge for more advanced students Additional exercises in the workbooks and online to support the expanded number of words and characters incorporated into the textbooks New cross references between the textbooks workbooks and companion website facilitate using all the resources in an integrated manner Greatly enhanced and re designed website Retaining its focus on communicative skills and the long term retention of characters the text is now presented in simplified characters and pinyin from the outset with a gradual and phased removal of pinyin as specific characters are introduced and learnt This unique approach allows students to benefit from the support of pinyin in the initial stages as they begin speaking while ensuring they are guided and supported towards reading only in characters

Integrating East Asian Medicine into Contemporary Healthcare E-Book Volker Scheid, Hugh MacPherson, 2011-10-24 Traditional East Asian healthcare systems have moved rapidly from the fringes of healthcare systems in the West towards the centre over the past 50 years This change of status for traditional medicines presents their practitioners with both opportunities and challenges as the focus shifts from one of opposition towards one of integration into biomedically dominated healthcare systems Integrating East Asian Medicine into Contemporary Healthcare examines the opportunities and challenges of integrating East Asian medicine into Western healthcare systems from an interdisciplinary perspective Volker Scheid and Hugh MacPherson bring together contributions from acknowledged experts from a number of different disciplines including clinical researchers Chinese Medicine practitioners historians medical anthropologists experts in the social studies of science technology and medicine to examine and debate the impact of the evidence based medicine movement on the ongoing modernization of East Asian medicines The book considers the following questions What are the values goals and ethics implicit within traditional East Asian medical practices What claims to effectiveness and safety are made by East Asian medical practices What is at stake in subjecting these medical practices to biomedical models of evaluation What constitutes best practice How is it to be defined and measured What are the ideologies and politics behind the process of integration of East Asian medical practices into modern health care systems What can we learn from a variety of models of integration into contemporary healthcare
