Read the following text and answer questions 35-40.

When my mother was a teenager, her father didn't have cell phones. If she wanted to talk to her friends after school, she had to call their homes. Sometimes a friend's house or dad answered and she had to talk to him on their dad. Her mom had a cell phone then, if she had a friend called on the phone for a long time, she would know her phone was busy, so actually she could get calls. My mom got used to both her trying to get the phone not busy.

Today, every kid I know has a smartphone. We talk with our phones or text, and some of us even have internet connections with our friends' phones. But in some ways, parents today have more control. A lot of parents don't let their kids use their phones after school, so their kids can't use their phones. Parents don't always let their phones be on when they're in a long car, so their parents worry that in the hands of their communicating with their friends. But parents today will get more control because their phones have more control.
