Schultz, Steven W.

Evans, 2015-06-11 This innovative volume details counseling interventions for secondary students with ADHD and its associated academic and conduct problems particularly focusing on youth at risk for developing serious disruptive behaviors. It addresses the continuing debate over counseling for youths with ADHD by identifying key elements common to reputable therapies and suggesting a framework for their successful implementation. The core of the book discusses the Challenging Horizons Program, a behavior and solutions focused approach to counseling adolescents with ADHD that has been studied extensively for more than 15 years. Based on the quality of research, the CHP has been included in the National Registry of Evidence based Programs and Practices maintained by the U.S. Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration. SAMHSA Excerpts from actual sessions illustrate typical therapist/client interactions in the CHP and sample modules from the program's treatment literature expand the book's descriptions of effective hands-on interventions. Counseling skills featured in this book include Bridging the research into practice, divide, Establishing a therapeutic alliance with students with ADHD, Developing and implementing interventions for memory organization and planning, Enhancing young clients' social skills, Enlisting family members in the intervention process, Working directly with teachers to improve student behaviors. A Practical Guide to Implementing School Based Interventions for Adolescents with ADHD is an essential resource for researchers, clinicians, and related professionals and graduate students in such disciplines as school and clinical child psychology, social work, educational psychology, psychotherapy, and counseling, and learning and instruction.

Addresses both social and cultural geography in a single volume, authored and edited by leading authorities in the fields. The Companion to Social and Cultural Geography provides reliable and up-to-date coverage of both foundational topics and emerging themes within two vibrant and increasingly interconnected subdisciplines of geography. Building upon the Companion to Cultural Geography first published in 2013, editors Ishan Ashutosh and Jamie Winders offer an expertly curated collection of original essays with special emphasis on early career scholars, geographers of color, and geographers from the Global South. Organized thematically, the Companion opens with a series of Global Dispatches from cultural and social geographers working in different disciplines and locations, followed by explorations of key concepts in social and cultural geography such as identity, belonging, solidarity, inequalities, and intersectional geographies. Subsequent chapters examine a wide range of cultural and social geographies including creativity technologies science nature memory tourism migration labor and religion Throughout the Companion authors share fresh insights into the racial reckonings of late ongoing issues related to climate change the consequences of COVID 19 and more Across its 46 chapters the Companion to Social and Cultural Geography Examines how approaches to human environment dynamics in social and cultural geography help shed light on current challenges Covers critical topics such as justice protest borders public health urban planning indigeneity genders class race and sexualities Emphasizes the value of a geographic perspective to understanding social and cultural dynamics Discusses how geography has confronted its deep connections to colonialism imperialism and white supremacy Addresses a range of emerging and established themes including queer and transgender geographies Black geographies animal geographies and cultural geographies of states Incorporates a diversity of writing styles narratives and analyses such as interviews conversations short essays autobiography and autoethnography Accessible authoritative and highly relevant to today s students the Companion to Social and Cultural Geography is an essential textbook for undergraduate or graduate courses on social or cultural geography cultural studies cultural sociology and ethnic studies Deviant Landscapes Fivos
