Library,1972 Organise or Die? Raphaël Botiveau,2017-12-01 The story of one of the leading trade unions in South Africa the National Union of Mineworkers and its role in the struggle against white minority rule Organise or Die Democracy and Leadership in South Africa s National Union of Mineworkers NUM is the first in depth study of one of the leading trade unions in the country Founded in 1982 the trade union played a key role in the struggle against white minority rule before turning into a central protagonist of the ruling Tripartite Alliance after apartheid Deftly navigating through workerist social movement and political terrains that shape the South African labour landscape this book sheds light on the path that led to the unprecedented 2012 Marikana massacre the dissolution of the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu federation and to fractures within the African National Congress ANC itself Working with the notions of organisational agency and strategic bureaucratisation Rapha l Botiveau shows how the founding leadership of NUM built their union s structures with a view to mirror those of the multinational mining companies NUM faced Good leadership proved key to the union s success in recruiting and uniting mineworkers and NUM became an impressive school for union and political cadres producing a number of South Africa s top post apartheid leaders An incisive analysis of leadership styles and strategies shows how the fragile balance between an increasingly distant leadership and an increasingly militant membership gradually broke down Botiveau provides a compelling narrative of NUM s powerful history and the legacy of its leadership It will appeal to a broad readership including journalists students and social sciences scholars interested in South Africa s contemporary politics and labour history The Conservation of Decorated Surfaces on Earthen Architecture L. Rrainer (ed.),Angelyn Bass Rivera,2006 For millennia people of all cultures have decorated the surfaces of their domestic religious and public buildings Earthen architecture in particular has been and continues to be a common ground for surface decoration such as paintings sculpted bas relief and ornamental plasterwork This volume explores the complex issues associated with preserving these surfaces Case studies from Asia Europe Africa the Middle East and the Americas are presented The publication is the result of a colloquium held in 2004 at Mesa Verde National Park Colorado co organized by the Getty Conservation Institute GCI and the National Park Service NPS The meeting brought together fifty five conservators cultural resource managers materials scientists engineers architects archaeologists anthropologists and artists from eleven countries Divided into four themes Archaeological Sites Museum Practice Historic Buildings and Living Traditions the papers examine the conservation of decorated surfaces on earthen architecture within these different contexts International Christian Literature Documentation Project: Author-editor index, corporate name index ,1993 The Remnants of Race Science Sebastián Gil-Riaño,2023-08-29 After World War II UNESCO launched an ambitious international campaign against race prejudice Casting racism as a problem of ignorance it sought to reduce prejudice by spreading the latest scientific knowledge about human diversity to instill mutual understanding between groups of people This campaign has often been understood as a response led by British and U S scientists to the extreme ideas that informed Nazi Germany Yet many of its key figures were social scientists either raised in or closely involved with South America and the South Pacific The Remnants of Race Science traces the influence of ideas from the Global South on UNESCO s race campaign illuminating its relationship to notions of modernization and economic development Sebastia n Gil Ria o examines the campaign participants involvement in some of the most ambitious development projects of the postwar period In challenging race prejudice these experts drew on ideas about race that emphasized plasticity and mutability in contrast to the fixed categories of scientific racism Gil Ria o argues that these same ideas legitimated projects of economic development and social integration aimed at bringing ostensibly backward indigenous and non European peoples into the modern world He also shows how these experts promotion of studies of race relations inadvertently spurred a deeper reckoning with the structural and imperial sources of racism as well as the aftermath of the transatlantic slave trade Shedding new light on the postwar refashioning of ideas about race this book reveals how internationalist efforts to dismantle racism paved the way for postcolonial modernization projects

Public Space Life Cycle Management Culture, Organization, and Management in South Africa Marja Spierenburg, Harry Wels, 2006 South Africa is celebrating its first decade of democratic freedom It therefore seems appropriate to examine in more detail how South Africa has tried to restore some of the many social injustices caused by the former apartheid regime This book offers a view into the world of organisation and management from a cultural perspective The authors investigate how initiatives and policies with the aim of generating more employment equity have been developed implemented and have worked out in various sectors of the South African economy The various chapters present in depth case studies that deal with the South African government local NGOs universities and tourism The book reveals in detail the local struggles of the historically disadvantaged and the powers that be to try and live up to the ideals of the New South Africa Identity Construction and Tourism Consumption Erdal Arslan, İnci Oya Coşkun, 2022-10-26 This book explores how identity plays a pivotal role in tourism consumption Almost all tourism related consumption studies underestimate or refer inadequately to identity's relationship with tourism consumption As identity phenomenon is considerably a new subject in the tourism literature this book examines its relationship with the consumption theory It is of interest to readers curious about how pre during and post consumption activities affect a person's identity and vice versa This book contains an analysis of consumption theories and a summary of literature identifying the phenomenon's evolution through pre modern modern and post modern periods In this context this book aims to enlighten the interactions between identity construction and tourism consumption The grounded theory one of the qualitative research approaches was applied to accomplish the relevant purpose and in depth interviews were recruited following the method approach stages to enable the researchers to gain new insights into the subject By presenting the identity tended tourism consumption model this book provides a set of profound contributions to the relevant literature and insight for practitioners decision makers and entrepreneurs This book attempts to clarify the tourists consumption process and understand how the interactions between identity construction and tourism consumption work The qualitative methodology grounded theory allows in depth analysis and insights of the participants of the study on their definitions of themselves as human beings and as tourists decisions on their travel plans their considerations motivations to travel and destination preferences interactions with others vacation activities evaluations on their travel experiences et cetera Therefore this book appeals to readers of marketing business operations sociology and economics Biological & Agricultural Index ,1937 Africa Insight ,2002 Bibliographie internationale sur le bilinguisme William Francis Mackey, Université Laval. Centre international de recherches sur le bilinguisme, 1982 The South Indian Pentecostal Movement in the Twentieth Century Michael Bergunder, 2008-06-06 Making up approximately 20 percent of South India's Protestants Pentecostals are an influential part of India's Christian culture yet there is a distinct lack of scholarly focus on this increasingly large group This careful well informed study by Michael Bergunder ably fills that gap After a brief historical introduction to the worldwide growth of Pentecostalism Bergunder

delves into the history of the South Indian Pentecostal movement in the first section The second section gives a systematic profile of the current movement in South India based on a wide range of source materials and on formal interviews with nearly two hundred leading pastors and evangelists Bergunder finishes his work with prospects for the future Three appendixes and an extended bibliography offer ample ground for further research Prospectus and List of Members Hakluyt Society,1927 Includes a list of the society s publications Paratransit in African Cities Roger Behrens,Dorothy McCormick,David Mfinanga,2015-09-07 Public transport systems in contemporary Sub Saharan African cities are heavily reliant upon paratransit services These services are defined as informal transportation which operates between the public and individual private spheres In Africa paratransit is characterized by low quality of vehicles and chaotic management but it also provides cheap accessible and flexible transport solutions for the urban poor It is typically poorly regulated and operates as a set of informal businesses A common result of weak public sector regulation and a fare strategy in which owners claim a fixed daily revenue target and drivers who keep the variable balance as income is destructive competition and poor quality of service There is an incontrovertible case for improving the quality reliability and coverage of public transport systems and some city governments have attempted to do so by initiating reform projects that envisage the phased replacement of paratransit operations with formalised bus rapid transit systems In this book the authors argue that there are however path dependencies and constraints that limit the possible extent of public transport system reform Paratransit operations also have some inherent advantages with respect to demand responsiveness and service innovation Attempts to eradicate paratransit may be neither pragmatic nor strategic Two future scenarios are likely hybrid systems comprised of both paratransit and formally planned modes and systems improved by upgrades and strengthened regulation of existing paratransit services The business strategies and aspirations of incumbent paratransit operators in three case cities Cape Town Dar es Salaam and Nairobi are discussed as well as their attitudes towards emerging public transport reform projects International experiences of hybrid system regulation and paratransit business development are reviewed in order to explore policy options The authors contend that policies recognising paratransit operators and seeking contextually appropriate complementarity with formalised planned services will produce greater benefits than policies ignoring their continued existence The Technical Literature of Agricultural Motor Fuels Richard Wiebe,Janina Nowakowska,1949 List of Serials Currently Received, November 1, 1949 United States.
