Alcohol guidelines Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Science and Technology Committee,2012-01-09 This report raises concerns about the Government s advice on sensible drinking and recommends that alcohol guidelines are reviewed In 1987 the sensible limits for drinking were defined as 21 units of alcohol a week for men and 14 for women By the early 1990s scientific evidence suggesting that alcohol consumption might reduce the risk of coronary heart disease prompted a review of the guidelines and the drinking guidelines were then couched in daily terms men should not regularly drink more than three to four units a day and women no more than two to three units a day The Committee is sceptical about using the purported health benefits of alcohol as a basis for daily guidelines for all the adult population particularly as any protective effects would only apply to men over 40 years and post menopausal women Evidence suggests that the guidelines should not be increased and that people should take at least two drink free days a week While public awareness of the existence of guidelines is high a deeper understanding of what the guidelines were and of what a unit of alcohol looked like is lacking Through the Public Health Responsibility Deal the Government is working with the drinks industry to ensure that over 80% of alcoholic products on shelf will have labels with alcoholic unit content and the drinking guidelines by 2013 But the Government should remain mindful that sensible drinking messages may conflict with the business objectives of drinks companies and exercise proper scrutiny and oversight

Beyond Immersive Theatre Adam Alston,2016-05-18 Immersive theatre currently enjoys ubiquity popularity and recognition in theatre journalism and scholarship However the politics of immersive theatre aesthetics still lacks a substantial critique Does immersive theatre model a particular kind of politics or a particular kind of audience What s involved in the production and consumption of immersive theatre aesthetics Is a productive audience always an empowered audience And do the terms of an audience s empowerment stand up to political scrutiny Beyond Immersive Theatre contextualises these questions by tracing the evolution of neoliberal politics and the experience economy over the past four decades Through detailed critical analyses of work by Ray Lee Lundahl Seidl Punchdrunk Shunt Theatre Delicatessen and Half Cut Adam Alston argues that there is a tacit politics to immersive theatre aesthetics a tacit politics that is illuminated by neoliberalism and that is ripe to be challenged by the evolution and diversification of immersive theatre

Islamic Branding and Marketing Paul

Temporal, 2011-06-24 Islamic Branding and Marketing Creating A Global Islamic Business provides a complete guide to building brands in the largest consumer market in the world. The global Muslim market is now approximately 23 percent of the world's population and is projected to grow by about 35 percent in the next 20 years. If current trends continue, there are expected to be 2.2 billion Muslims in 2030 that will make up 26.4 percent of the world's total projected population of 8.3 billion. As companies currently compete for the markets of China and India, few have realized the global Muslim market represents potentially larger opportunities. Author Paul Temporal explains how to develop and manage brands and businesses for the fast-growing Muslim market through sophisticated strategies that will ensure sustainable value and addresses issues such as: How is the global Muslim market structured? What opportunities are there in Islamic brand categories including the digital world? What strategies should non-Muslim companies adopt in Muslim countries? More than 30 case studies illustrate practical applications of the topics covered, including Brunei Halal Brand, Godiva Chocolatier, Johor Corporation, Nestle, Unilever, Fulla Muxlim Inc, and more. Whether you are in control of an established company, starting up a new one, or have responsibility for a brand within an Islamic country looking for growth, Islamic Branding and Marketing is an indispensable resource that will help build, improve, and secure brand equity and value for your company. Handbook of Research on Innovation and Development of E-Commerce and E-Business in ASEAN Almunawar, Mohammad Nabil, Anshari, Muhammad, Ariff Lim, Syamimi, 2020-08-28 Business-to-consumer (B2C) and consumer-to-consumer (C2C) e-commerce transactions, including social commerce, are rapidly expanding, although e-commerce is still small when compared to traditional business transactions.
