Better than that, it has the potential to save you decades of time if you like most people are simply going through the motions every week. The basis, as with everything, is self-discovery. First, answer a few questions and be as specific and honest as possible: 1. What distracts me the most? 2. When do I get interrupted most often? 3. What can I do to make the distractions less? 4. What often comes to my mind? 5. When was I really able to concentrate fully? What played a role in that? 6. What procedures for concentration do I choose? 7. What other options do I have to be able to concentrate better? 8. How can I use what I have now found more in my life? If you really answered, then you are clear and this book will help you. Have you found that you tend to push tasks into the future when you don't want to deal with them at the moment? Or you just don't feel like doing something right now so you leave it for later?
