An Age of Accountability John L. Rury, 2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree

People's Diplomacy Kazushi Minami, 2024-03-15 In People's Diplomacy Kazushi Minami shows how the American and Chinese people rebuilt US China relations in the 1970s a pivotal decade bookended by Richard Nixon's 1972 visit to China and 1979 normalization of diplomatic relations Top policymakers in Washington and Beijing drew the blueprint for the new bilateral relationship but the work of building it was left to a host of Americans and Chinese from all walks of life who engaged in people to people exchanges After two decades of estrangement and hostility caused by the Cold War these people dramatically changed the nature of US China relations Americans reimagined China as a country of opportunities irresistible because of its prodigious potential while Chinese reinterpreted the United States as an agent of modernization capable of enriching their country and rejuvenating their lives Drawing on extensive research at two dozen archives in the United States and China People's Diplomacy redefines contemporary US China relations as a creation of the American and Chinese people The Religious Men in Jebel Marra Bakheit M. Nur Mohammed, 2017 The study investigates how Muslim religious specialists fuqar sing fak acquire Qur'anic knowledge in the context of the communities of practice It contextualises the Qur'anic schools of Jebel Marra in the Sudan arguing that the fuqar increase their access to knowledge of the Qur'an by socially interacting with each other The book is grounded in an ethnographic study of Qur'anic memorisation and activities that the fuqar perform after graduation from Qur'anic schools It thus provides a fresh perspective to Islamic learning and epistemology The great value of the study lies in the author's reconstruction of the practices and techniques cognitive and corporeal which are systematically employed to memorise the whole of the Qur'an
