Smith, Ph.D., 2016-12-07 A survey of the biblical material relating to angels and their roles in the lives of believers throughout history A New and Useful Concordance to the Holy Bible ... Begun by the Industrious Labours of V. P. I.e. Vavasor Powell, Etc, 1673 Jesus—The Portrait and Inscription of God George Paki, If we want to understand what God was telling John about the future we need to first understand what John understood Professor Jon Paulien Loma Linda University USA In Jesus The Portrait and Inscription of God the author pours his years of research into addressing the issue that Jon Paulien highlights Paki builds an intriguing case for a dual focused method of interpreting Revelation He uses this method to show i that Revelation was written primarily to John and his initial audience ii that the same prophecies also speak to us with clarity and force iii Then he wonders if God intentionally used the same material to speak to an audience then and now When this method is applied to Revelation 13 the text does come alive Deep theological truths and nuggets extracted are way too many to recount in a single book In fact this fresh approach minimizes most of our interpretive issues and enhances our understanding and appreciation of the apocalyptic Christ Some of our leading scholars agree It is well written well laid out and has good solid biblical insights Good solid evidence for Revelation s high Christology Dr Kayle de Waal Avondale College

Australia I found it thoughtful helpful and interesting to read The style of presentation is also very attractive Professor Jon Paulien Loma Linda University USA You have clearly shown the relationship between Revelation 13 with the rest of Revelation Dr Ross Cole Avondale College Australia The method used its interpretations and the theological insights are corroborated by other Johannine books the New Testament the Old Testament and the Spirit of Prophecy This volume will enhance the libraries of academics and laypeople alike Calvin's Catholic Christology Edward David Willis,2022-07-11 will The purpose is to present the Thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective It aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader The thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal Some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us The worth of a love depends on its object and end St Thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest The method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of Aquinas assumes The scope of the work is limited to three questions ST I II qq 26 28 References to interpretative disputes of Aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers

The Annotated Paragraph Bible ,1853 Images of Illness in the Gospel of Luke Annette Weissenrieder,2003 Analyzing the illness related terminology of the Gospel against the background of classical medical texts Annette Weissenrieder examines the degree to which ancient medical knowledge was incorporated into the healing narratives of the Gospel of Luke Thus her work focuses on the crossroads of theology and medical history Her primary reference is the Corpus Hippocraticum supplemented by the writings of Soranus Empedocles and Caelius Aurelianus She also examines Jewish sources in the light of these secular medical texts The premise of the study is the constructivist concept that has been developed in the context of writing the history of the body that there is no objective view of the sick body Every description of the body is formed by the cultural norms of a particular society and society s culture influences the way in which any given illness is seen In investigating concepts of medicine prevalent in antiquity Annette Weissenrieder brings to light the cultural parameters of perception specific to Luke She deals with gender specific images of illness as well as with those associated with impurity or demonic possession Her analysis confirms that the concepts of illness used by the Lucan author were profoundly characteristic of his time She demonstrates how he uses these concepts to make his central message plausible the presence of divine reality in the human sphere which can be experienced by both the physical body and the social body
