1989 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary,1988 Financialization and Strategy Julie

Froud,Sukhdev Johal,Adam Leaver,Karel Williams,2006-04-18 Considering the recent impact of the capital market on corporate strategy this text analyzes through argument and supportive case studies how pressures from the capital bull market of the 1990s and bear market of the early 2000s have reshaped management action and calculation in large publicly quoted US and UK corporations Beginning with the dissatisfaction with classical strategy and its limited engagement with the processes of financialization the book moves on to cover three detailed company case studies General Electric Ford and GlaxoSmithKline which use long run financial data and analysis of company and industry narratives to illustrate and explore key themes The book emphasizes the importance of company and industry narrative while also analyzing long term financial results and helps to explain the limits of management action and the burden of expectations placed on corporate governance Presenting financial and market information on trajectory in an accessible way this book provides a distinctive critical social science account of management in large UK and US corporations and it is a valuable resource for students scholars and researchers of business management political economy and non mainstream economics short listed for the 2007 IPEG Book Prize

Teaching on Solid Ground Thomas M. McCann, John V. Knapp, 2019-01-09 To be successful teachers of English in grades 6 12 need more than basic content knowledge and classroom management skills They need a deep understanding of the goals and principles of teaching literature writing oral discourse and language in order to make sound instructional decisions This engaging book explores the pedagogical foundations of the discipline and gives novice and future teachers specific guidance for creating effective interesting learning experiences The authors consider such questions as what makes a literary text worth studying what students gain from literary analysis how to make writing meaningful and how to weave listening and speaking into every class meeting Professional learning and course use are facilitated by end of chapter reflection questions text boxes and appendices showcasing exemplary learning activities

Alternative Food Networks for Sustainable, Just, Resilient and Productive Food Systems José Luis Vicente-Vicente, Lukas Egli, Felix Zoll, Simona Zollet, 2024-10-01 There is growing evidence that the current globalised agri food system is neither sustainable nor resilient It is responsible for around one third of the global GHG emissions and is a major driver of biodiversity loss Furthermore its structure and distribution mode do not provide food security for all and foster socio economic inequalities between different parts of the planet Consequently an increasing number of scientists and members of the civil society are demanding a radical transformation of agri food systems The creation of alternative food networks AFNs represent a possible first step towards agri food system transformation AFNs can incorporate local indigenous and innovative knowledge and bring together a diversity of actors to connect food production and consumption and create new practices and relationships around food The creation of AFNs and ultimately of Alternative Food Systems AFS should involve different actors from farmers to social movements from policymakers to scientists AFNs have the potential to contribute to a transformation towards sustainable just resilient and productive food systems but even though they have increased in numbers and organisational forms in recent years they still remain in a niche Consequently scientific evidence of their performance is still limited This research topic will contribute to a comprehensive multi scalar and critical e g including potential counter effects understanding of the current state and future potential of AFNs It will address multiple aspects ranging from social economic and environmental aspects to productivity participation and justice Moreover it will highlight the role of governance power relations and institutions as well as barriers and ways forward to promote AFNs and their role in food system transformation
