

First-person narrator personifies the poem and makes it seem more real.

London
This sounds purposeless - could reflect how he feels powerless to change what's happening.

I wander thro' each charter'd street, suggests the whole city is affected, not just one area.

Near where the charter'd Thames does flow, even powerful, natural features like the River Thames are under human control and affected by the city's problems.

And mark in every face I meet

Marks of weakness, marks of woe.

The speaker hears various distressing noises - makes this seem like a vivid, hellish experience

Repetition emphasises feeling of bleakness - despair affects everyone and there's no relief from it.

In every cry of every Man,

In every Infants cry of fear,

In every voice: in every ban,

The mind-forg'd manacles I hear

People are trapped in every way, even by thoughts and attitudes

Seems to be angry at all forms of power - describing the church as blackening could suggest that it is corrupt or tarnished by its failure to look after people. Grim visual image of the ugliness caused by the industrial revolution.

How the Chimney-sweepers cry

Every blackning Church appalls,

And the hapless Soldiers sigh

Runs in blood down Palace walls

Chimney sweepers usually young boys - emotive image of child labour.

Might be a reference to the French Revolution - sounds like he thinks ordinary people suffer while those in the Palace are protected behind walls.

Contrast between innocence of youth and savagery of prostitution

But most thro' midnight streets I hear

How the youthful Harlots curse

Blasts the new-born Infants tear

Hears the prostitutes swearing but he might also mean they are a curse on London.

The innocence of newborn babies is not immediately - society damages it's members

And blights with plagues the Marriage hearse

Oxymoron - links the happy image of marriage with death. suggests everything has been destroyed - used to show how everything is affected and nothing pure or innocent remains.

Powerful language of illness and disease. Destruction is implied by 'blights' and 'plagues' hints at something that's uncontrollable and destined to affect lots of people.
