EBOOK: Financial Accounting and Reporting: An International Approach Anne Marie Ward, Craig Deegan, 2013-03-16
Financial Accounting and Reporting An International Approach is an adaptation of McGraw Hill Australia's bestselling financial accounting text Australian Financial Accounting by Craig Deegan authored by Anne Marie Ward of Ulster University. Set within an international context with a solid grounding in IAS/IFRS, the book provides students with a detailed grasp of reporting requirements in an accessible and engaging manner. Up to date throughout and complete in theoretical and practical coverage, the book successfully communicates the detail necessary to understand, challenge and critically evaluate financial reporting. The result gives students a strong foundation for current study and their future professional lives.

Exploring Parliament Cristina Leston-Bandeira, Louise Thompson, 2018 A fresh perspective on an ancient institution
Exploring Parliament offers an engaging and real life insight into the inner workings, impact and relevance of twenty first century Parliament. Short academic and practitioner chapters are combined with highly relevant and practical case studies to provide a new and accessible introduction to Parliament's structures, people and practices. As well as covering the broader structure of UK Parliament, this text explains the role of small parties in law making, the design and space of Parliament and offers illuminating case studies on highly topical areas such as the Backbench Business Committee, the Hillsborough Inquiry and recent pieces of legislation such as the Assisted Dying Bill. This text is complemented by the following online resources for students and lecturers: Video tours of Parliament, Podcasts to explain and explore the work of Parliament, Web links to help students to explore Parliament even further.

Tax Evasion and the Law Sam Bourton, 2024-06-18 This book provides a critical and contemporary evaluation of the laws and enforcement policies pertaining to tax evasion in the United Kingdom, UK and United States. Since the inception of tax revenue collection authorities around the world, they have attempted to address the seemingly perennial problem of individuals evading their tax liabilities. The financial crisis has shone a new light on the issue with an increased interest in using the criminal justice system as a means of addressing it in the UK. In sharp contrast to the UK, the US has a strong record of prosecuting crimes of tax evasion whether committed by individuals or professional corporate facilitators. Providing an evaluation of the UK's tax evasion laws and enforcement policy through a comparative approach, this work highlights insights provided by the US experience. In so doing, the book explores the interconnections between tax evasion and money laundering, identifying best practices, omissions and areas for reform. The work will be a valuable resource for researchers, academics and policy makers working in the areas of financial crime, financial law, accountancy and criminal justice.

Issues in Financial Accounting Scott Henderson, Graham Peirson, Kathy Herbohn, Bryan Howieson, 2015-05-20 Issues in Financial Accounting addresses the controversial issues in financial accounting that have been debated by the preparers, users, auditors and regulators of financial statements. Henderson provides the best balance of technical and theoretical coverage in any Financial Accounting text on the market today with its presentation of real world examples current debates and the underlying rationale for the accounting concepts demonstrated Throughout the text academic studies and professional accounting research are referenced to also provide a critical understanding of historical debates in financial accounting The new 15th edition covers significant recent developments to the accounting standards in Australia and is based on the AASB standards and interpretations that have been issued up to the end of 2012 This includes the Australian Accounting Standard Board s AASB program of changes to make accounting standards equivalent to International Financial Reporting Standards
