Accounting Book Chinese America:

Chinese American Transnationalism Sucheng Chan, 2006 Chinese American Transnationalism considers the many ways in which Chinese living in the United States during the exclusion era maintained ties with China through a constant interchange of people and economic resources as well as political and cultural ideas This book continues the exploration of the exclusion era begun in two previous volumes Entry Denied which examines the strategies that Chinese Americans used to protest undermine and circumvent the exclusion laws and Claiming America which traces the development of Chinese American ethnic identities Taken together the three volumes underscore the complexities of the Chinese immigrant experience and the ways in which its contexts changed over the sixty one year period Chinese American Literature Since the 1850s Xiao-huang Yin, 2000 This volume an introduction and guide to the field traces the origins and development of a body of literature written in English and in Chinese China's America Jing Li, 2012-01-02 2011 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Winner of the 2011 Best Book Award presented by the Chinese American Librarians Association What do the Chinese think of America Why did Jiang Zemin praise the film Titanic Why did Mao call FDR's envoy Patrick Hurley a clown Why did the book China Can Say No meaning no to the United States become a bestseller only a few years after a replica of the Statue of Liberty was erected during protests in Tianamen Square Jing Li's fascinating book explores Chinese perceptions of the United States during the twentieth century As Li notes these two very different countries both played significant roles in world affairs and there were important interactions between them Chinese view of the United States were thus influenced by various and changing considerations resulting in interpretations and opinions that were complex and sometimes contradictory Li uncovers the historical political and cultural forces that have influenced these alternately positive and negative opinions Revealing in its insight into the twentieth century China's America is also instructive for all who care about the understandings between these two powerful countries as we move into the twenty first century Chinese American Mothering Andrea Louie, 2025-12-16 A journey from Chinese immigrant to U S Mother of the Year unpacks the roots of the model minority myth and its legacy In 1952 Toy Len Goon a Chinese immigrant widow who raised eight children while running their family laundry was selected as U S Mother of the Year by the American Mother's Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation In Chinese American Mothering Andrea Louie argues that Toy Len Goon's selection for this honor was more than an acknowledgement of her having raised eight successful children while running a business rather she was chosen precisely because she was a Chinese American woman who could exemplify both the virtues of mothering and of American upward mobility Her selection for the Mother of the Year honor can only be understood within the context of shifting representations of Chinese Americans during the Cold War era and the accompanying assumptions about the strategic role that positive representations of Chinese Americans could have in extending U S influence in Asia Drawing upon immigration records interviews and secondary sources as well as her positionality as Toy Len Goon's granddaughter Louie tells an expanded version of Toy Len Goon's life story Ultimately Chinese American Mothering addresses themes of migration gender racialization Americanization and success through the evolving lens of the model minority myth Chinese Export

Porcelain for the American Trade, 1785-1835 Jean McClure Mudge, 1981 This revised edition of a book first published in 1962 is still the only work that goes to fresh primary shipping sources to tell the story of America's trade in export Chinese porcelain There are over one hundred photographs in the book covering all the major types of export porcelain both common and uncommon made for America Illustrated Chinese Americans in the Heartland Huping Ling, 2022-09-16

The term Heartland in American cultural context conventionally tends to provoke imageries of corn fields flat landscape hog farms and rural communities along with ideas of conservatism homogeneity and isolation But as the Midwestern and Southern states experienced more rapid population growth than that in California Hawaii and New York in the recent decades the Heartland region has emerged as a growing interest of Asian American studies Focused on the Heartland cities of Chicago Illinois and St Louis Missouri this book draws rich evidences from various government records personal stories and interviews and media reports and sheds light on the commonalities and uniqueness of the region as compared to the Asian American communities on the East and West Coast and Hawaii Some of the poignant stories such as the Three Moy Brothers Alla Lee and Save Sam Wah Laundry told in the book are powerful reflections of Asian American history The American Novel Now Patrick

O'Donnell, 2010-01-21 The American Novel Now navigates the vast terrain of the American novel since 1980 exploring issues of identity history family nation and aesthetics as well as cultural movements and narrative strategies from over seventy different authors and novels Discusses an exceptionally wide range of authors and novels from established figures to significant emerging writers Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon Louise Erdrich Don DeLillo Richard Powers Kathy Acker and many more Explores the range of themes and styles offered in the wealth of contemporary American fiction since 1980 in both mainstream and experimental writings Reflects the liveliness and diversity of American fiction in the last thirty years Written in a style that makes it ideal for students and scholars while also accessible for general readers Remaking

Chinese America Xiaojian Zhao, 2002 In Remaking Chinese America Xiaojian Zhao explores the myriad forces that changed and unified Chinese Americans during a key period in American history Prior to 1940 this immigrant community was predominantly male but between 1940 and 1965 it was transformed into a family centered American ethnic community Zhao pays special attention to forces both inside and outside of the country in order to explain these changing demographics She scrutinizes the repealed exclusion laws and the immigration laws enacted after 1940 Careful attention is also paid to evolving gender roles since women constituted the majority of newcomers significantly changing the sex ratio of the Chinese American population As members of a minority sharing a common cultural heritage as well as pressures from the larger society Chinese Americans networked and struggled to gain equal rights during the cold war period In defining the political circumstances that brought the Chinese together as a cohesive political body Zhao also delves into the complexities they faced when questioning their personal national allegiances Remaking Chinese America uses a wealth of primary sources including oral histories newspapers genealogical documents and immigration files to illuminate what it was like to be Chinese living in the United States during a period that until now has been little studied Contemporary Strategic Chinese American Business Negotiations and Market Entry Steven J.
