Parliament. House of Commons. Committee of Public Accounts,2015 The Department for International Development is the main funder of the Private Infrastructure Development Group a multilateral agency which invests in infrastructure projects in developing countries The Department has not used its position as by far the dominant funder of PIDG to influence the direction of its operations and improve its performance The Department s oversight of PIDG has not been sufficiently hands on The Committee is concerned that the Department has insufficient assurance over the integrity of PIDG s investments and the companies with which it works and the Department has not done enough to put a stop to PIDG s wasteful travel policies and poor financial management Race and the Greening of Atlanta Christopher C. Sellers,2023-08-15 Race and the Greening of Atlanta turns an environmental lens on Atlanta s ascent to thriving capital of the Sunbelt over the twentieth century Uniquely wide ranging in scale from the city s variegated neighborhoods up to its place in regional and national political economies this book reinterprets the fall of Jim Crow as a democratization born of two metropolitan movements a well known one for civil rights and a lesser known one on behalf of the environment Arising out of Atlanta s Black and white middle classes respectively both movements owed much to New Deal capitalism s undermining of concentrated wealth and power if not racial segregation in the Jim Crow South Placing these two movements on the same historical page Christopher C Sellers spotlights those environmental inequities ideals and provocations that catalyzed their divergent political projects He then follows the intermittent sometimes vital alliances they struck as civil rights activists tackled poverty as a new environmental state arose and as Black politicians began winning elections Into the 1980s as a wealth concentrating style of capitalism returned to the city and Atlanta became a national poster child for sprawl the seedbeds spread both for a national environmental justice movement and for an influential new style of antistatism Sellers contends that this new conservatism sweeping the South with an antienvironmentalism and budding white nationalism that echoed the region s Jim Crow past once again challenged the democracy Atlantans had achieved The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). American Military Communities in West Germany John W. Lemza,2016-05-13 On April 28 1946 a small group of American wives and children arrived at the port of Bremerhaven West Germany the first of thousands of military family members to make the trans Atlantic journey They were the basis of a network of military communities Little Americas that would spread across the postwar German landscape During a 45 year period which included some of the Cold War s tensest moments their presence confirmed America s resolve to maintain Western democracy in the face of the Soviet threat Drawing on archival sources and personal narratives this book explores these enclaves of Americanism from the U S government s perspective to the grassroots view of those who made their homes in Cold War Europe These families faced many challenges in balancing their military missions with their daily lives during a period of dynamic global change The author describes interaction in American communities that were sometimes separated sometimes connected with their German neighbors North pacific climate and ecosystem predictability on seasonal to decadal timescales Shoshiro Minobe,Antonietta Capotondi,Fei Chai,Michael Jacox,Masami Nonaka,Ryan Ross Rykaczewski,2023-05-10 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Strategic Corporate Social Responsibility David Chandler,2019-08-13 A holistic perspective for navigating and exploring the CSR landscape Strategic Corporate Social Responsibility Sustainable Value Creation Fifth Edition redefines corporate social responsibility CSR as being central to the value creating purpose of the firm and provides a framework that firms can use to navigate the complex and dynamic business landscape Based on a theory of empowered stakeholders this bestselling text argues that the responsibility of a corporation is to create value broadly defined The primary challenge for managers today is to balance the competing interests of the firm s stakeholders understanding that what they expect today may not be what they will expect tomorrow This tension is what makes CSR so demanding but it is also what makes CSR integral to the firm s strategy and day to day operations The Customs Valuation Agreement Mark K. Neville,2023-03-09 Global Trade Law Series Volume 58 Customs valuation is a key element in the corpus of international trade law Despite the facts that the WTO Valuation Agreement 1994 remains unchanged in all material respects and that it has been adopted by virtually every trading nation on the planet there are fissures in the system preventing consensus on many contentious questions This extremely knowledgeable analysis by a world renowned specialist lawyer in the field by concentrating on diverging views on the nature of the central feature of the Agreement the definition of the price actually paid or payable

PAPP provides the most extensive study available of the origins and architecture of the Valuation Agreement and its intersection with transfer pricing norms. Among much else the author fully explains differing views on such questions as the following: criteria governing royalties and license fees; acceptability of the First Sale for Export doctrine; role of transport charges in valuing dutiable assists; status of interest payments on deferred payments; valuation of carrier media bearing software for data processing equipment; inclusion or exclusion of transport charges in the PAPP status of the WTO's moratorium on electronic transmissions; status of payments of money for tools and other materials used in producing the imported goods; and status of international instruments of traffic. The author expertly assesses interpretations of the Valuation Agreement as presented in the instruments of the World Customs Organization and in the administrative and judicial fora of the United States, Canada and the European Union. This matchless book takes a giant step toward real world consensus on the daunting questions of custom valuation. Customs and international tax professionals as well as academic scholars will come away from its in depth coverage with an enhanced ability to discern the logic inherent in the Valuation Agreement, a greater awareness of current trends and their origins in authoritative customs valuation bodies and improved confidence when approaching customs valuation questions.
