Irish-American Autobiography James Silas Rogers, 2016 Irish American Autobiography opens a new window on the shifting meanings of Irishness over the twentieth century by looking at a range of works that have never before been considered as a distinct body of literature Opening with celebrity memoirs from athletes like boxer John L. Sullivan and ballplayer Connie Mack written when the Irish were eager to put their raffish origins behind them later chapters trace the many tensions often unspoken registered by Irish Americans who've told their life stories New York saloonkeepers and South Boston step dancers set themselves against the larger culture setting a pattern of being on the outside looking in Even the classic 1950s TV comedy The Honeymooners speaks to the urban Irish origins and the poignant sense of exclusion felt by its creator Jackie Gleason Catholicism so key to the identity of earlier generations of Irish Americans has also evolved One chapter looks at the painful diffidence of priest autobiographers and others reveal how traditional Irish Catholic ideas of the guardian angel and pilgrimage have evolved and stayed potent down to our own time Irish American Autobiography becomes in the end a story of a continued search for connection documenting an ethnic fade that never quite happened

How To Do Biography Nigel Hamilton, 2012-10-22 It is not surprising that biography is one of the most popular literary genres of our day What is remarkable is that there is no accessible guide for how to write one Now following his recent Biography A Brief History from Harvard award winning biographer and teacher Nigel Hamilton tackles the practicalities of doing biography in this first succinct primer to elucidate the tools of the biographer s craft Hamilton invites the reader to join him on a fascinating journey through the art of biographical composition Starting with personal motivation he charts the making of a modern biography from the inside from conception to fulfillment He emphasizes the need to know one s audience rehearses the excitement and perils of modern research delves into the secrets of good and great biography and guides the reader through the essential components of life narrative With examples taken from the finest modern biographies Hamilton shows how to portray the ages of man birth childhood love life s work the evening of life and death In addition he suggests effective ways to start and close a life story He clarifies the difference between autobiography and memoir and addresses the sometimes awkward ethical legal and personal consequences of truth telling in modern life writing He concludes with the publication and reception of biography its afterlife so to speak Written with humor insight and compassion How To Do Biography is the manual that would be biographers have long been awaiting

The Ethics of Life Writing Paul John Eakin,2004 Our lives are increasingly on display in public but the ethical issues involved in presenting such revelations remain largely unexamined How can life writing do good and how can it cause harm The eleven essays here explore such questions

From Girl to Woman Christy Rishoi,2012-02-01 From Girl to Woman examines the coming of age narratives of a diverse group of American women writers including Annie Dillard Zora Neale Hurston Maxine Hong Kingston and Mary McCarthy and explores the crucial role of such narratives in the development of American feminism Women have long known that identity is complex and contradictory but in the twentieth century their coming of age narratives finally voice this knowledge Addressing a variety of themes awakening sexuality the body s metamorphosis in puberty consciousness of difference from males and the socialization into feminine gender roles these narratives reject the heroine s narrative ending in romance allowing American women writers to create alternative subjectivities by rejecting the notion that identity is ever fixed While activists have succeeded in winning legal battles that have changed the legal status of women these narratives perform the cultural work of exposing the painful contradictions faced by women as they come of age
