

Animal Farm Chapter Four Questions

Directions: Answer each in a complete sentence. Use textual evidence to support your response.

1. What do Snowball and Napoleon do to encourage the spread of Animalism?

Snowball and Napoleon encourage the spread of Animalism by sending "out flights of pigeons whose instructions were to mingle with the animals on neighboring farms" (Orwell, 54).

2. Who are Frederick and Pilkington?

Frederick and Pilkington are the owners of the farms that reside on each side of Animal Farm.

3. In what ways do the humans try and stop the spread of Animalism?

The humans try and stop the spread of Animalism by stating "the animals there practiced cannibalism, tortured one another with red-hot horseshoes, and had females in common" (Orwell, 55). They were basically trying to spread lies so that the animals would not want to rebel.

4. Where does Snowball get his ideas for defending Animal Farm?

Snowball gets his ideas for defending Animal Farm by studying "an old book of Julius Caesar's campaigns" (Orwell, 57).

5. Describe how the animals are able to successfully defend the farm against the humans.

The animals are able to successfully defend the farm against the humans by working together and strategically planning their defenses.

6. Which animals are injured or killed during the battle?

During the battle, Snowball is injured and one sheep is killed.

7. How do the animals celebrate their victory?

The animals celebrate their victory by reassembling "in the wildest excitement, each recounting his own exploits in the battle" (Orwell, 59).

They also hoisted the flag and sung Beasts of England.

8. What part does Napoleon play during the Battle of the Cowshed? What do you think this says about him? During the Battle of the Cowshed, Napoleon was not present whatsoever. His lack of presence shows that Napoleon does not care for the well-being of everyone and does not share in the defense of the farm.

CHAPTER I
CIVILISATION AND ANTIQUITIES OF THE NORTH A study of the ancient literature and abundant arch ology of the North gives us a true picture of the character and life of the Norse ancestors of the English speaking peoples We can form a satisfactory idea of their religious social political and warlike life We can follow them from their birth to their grave We see the infant exposed to die or water sprinkled and a name bestowed upon it follow the child in his education in his sports the young man in his practice of arms the maiden in her domestic duties and embroidery the adult in his warlike expeditions hear the clash of swords and the songs of the Scald looking on and inciting the warriors to greater deeds of daring or it may be recounting afterwards the glorious death of the hero We listen to the old man giving his advice at the Thing We learn about their dress ornaments implements weapons their expressive names and complicated relationships their dwellings and convivial halls with their primitive or magnificent furniture their temples sacrifices gods and sacred ceremonies their personal appearance even to the hair eyes face and limbs Their festivals betrothal and marriage feasts are open to us We are present at their athletic games preparatory to the stern realities of the life of that period where honour and renown were won on the battle field at the revel and drunken bout behold the dead warrior on his burning ship or on the pyre and surrounded by his weapons horses slaves or fallen companions who are to enter with him into Valhalla look into the death chamber see the mounding and the Arvel or inheritance feast These Norsemen had carriages or chariots as well as horses and the numerous skeletons of this animal in graves or bogs prove it to have been in common use at a very early period Their dress and the splendour of their riding equipment for war the richness of the ornamentation of their weapons of offence and defence are often carefully described Everywhere we see that gold was in the greatest abundance The descriptions of such wealth might seem to be very much exaggerated but as will be seen in the course of this work the antiquities treasured in the museums of the North bear witness to the truthfulness of the records The spade has developed the history of Scandinavia as it has done that of Assyria and Etruria but in addition the Northmen had the Saga and Edda literature to perpetuate their deeds We are the more astonished as we peruse the Eddas and Sagas giving the history of the North and examine the antiquities found in the country for we hear hardly anything about the customs of the people from the Roman writers and our ideas regarding them have been thoroughly vitiated by the earlier Frankish and English chronicles and other monkish writings or by the historians who have taken these records as a trustworthy authority Some writers in order to give more weight to these chronicles and to show the great difference that existed between the invaders and invaded and how superior the latter were to the former paint in a graphic manner without a shadow of authority the contrast between the two peoples England is described as being at that time a most beautiful country a panegyric which does not apply to fifteen or twenty centuries ago while the country of the aggressor is depicted as one of swamp and forest inhabited by wild and savage men It is forgotten that after a while the people of the country attacked were the same people as those of the North or their descendants who in intelligence civilisation and manly virtues were far superior to the original and effete inhabitants of the shores they invaded To be continue in this ebook
