Another wave of Jewish immigrants mostly from Eastern Europe and Russia came in the late 1800s to escape the Russian army draft or persecution. Many of these early settlers' families still remain and their established synagogues and organizations are a vital part of the community. Reform Congregation Oheb Sholom, the oldest surviving synagogue, was founded in 1864. On October 18, 1945, the Jewish Community Center of Reading was completed and dedicated. The Book of Birthdays, Or Anniversary Poetry of Human Life Mary E. Bennett, 1872 "Ask the Man Who Owns One" Arthur W. Einstein, Jr., 2014-01-10 A major force in the American automobile scene through the 1950s, Packard made a mark on American advertising as well. The cars themselves seemed built for promotion: the red hexagon in the hubcap, the yoke grille, and the half arrow belt line molding acted as a logo of sorts, setting a new standard in visual continuity and branding. The company's image became so firmly established in fact that Packard eventually ran advertisements which pictured the cars but purposely omitted the name, instead asking readers to guess what name it bears. This book traces Packard's advertising history from 1900 through 1958, based on original research that includes several first-hand interviews with the people who made it happen. Filled with reproductions of Packard ads, some in color, the book looks beyond the surface to examine how the advertisements reflect and interpret the company's management and business convictions, how they were influenced by business conditions and competitive pressure, and how they changed with the times.
