Amazing Arts 27 William Holman Hunt Volume 27:

Art Historical Perspectives on the Portrayal of Animal Death Roni Grén, 2024-04-22 This study concentrates on the discourses around animal death in arts and the ways they changed over time Chapter topics span from religious symbolism to natural history cabinets from hunting laws to animal rights from economic history to formalist views on art In other words the book asks why artists have represented animal death in visual culture maintaining that the practice has through the whole era been a crucial part of the understanding of our relation to the world and our identity as humans This is the first truly integrative book length examination of the depiction of dead animals in Western art The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history animal studies and cultural history

Signs for the Times Chris Brooks, 2016-07-01 First published in 1984 Signs for the Times explores imaginative and creative relationships between three major areas of mid Victorian arts literature painting and architecture Through the detailed critical analysis of particular novels prose writings paintings and buildings Chris Brooks establishes a fusion of realistic and symbolic values that he sees as central to the Victorian creative imagination He argues that the creative achievement of the mid nineteenth century needs to be seen far more as a whole than it has previously and that fundamental imaginative terms are common to art and architecture to major theoretical writers such as Carlyle Ruskin and Rugin as well as to the central literary figure of Dickens All those interested in literature art or architecture will welcome this interpretation of symbolic realism within the mid Victorian world

John Ruskin, the Pre-Raphaelites, and Religious Imagination Sheona Beaumont, Madeleine Emerald Thiele, 2023-06-26 This volume presents a collection of essays by leading experts which examine nineteenth century ideas about Christian theology art architecture restoration and curatorial practice The volume unveils the importance of John Ruskin s writing for today s audience and allies it with the dynamism of the Pre Raphaelite religious imagination Ruskin s drawings and daguerreotypes as well as Pre Raphaelite paintings stained glass and engravings are shown to be alive with visual theology artists such as Dante Gabriel Rossetti John Everett Millais Edward Burne Jones and Evelyn de Morgan illuminate aspects of faith and aesthetics The interdisciplinary nature of this volume encourages reflection upon praise truth and beauty The aesthetic conversations between Ruskin and the Pre Raphaelites themselves become a form of sacra conversazione

Classical Traditions in Modern Fantasy Brett M. Rogers, Benjamin Eldon Stevens, 2017 Classical Traditions in Modern Fantasy presents fifteen all new essays on how fantasy draws on ancient Greek and Roman mythology philosophy literature history art and cult practice Ranging from harpies to hobbits from Cyclopes to Cthulhu the comparative study of Classics and fantasy reveals deep similarities between ancient and modern ways of imagining the world

The Sight of Sound Richard Leppert, 1993-12-01 Richard Leppert boldly examines the social meanings of music as these have been shaped not only by hearing but also by seeing music in performance His purview is the northern European bourgeoisie principally in England and the Low Countries from 1600 to 1900 And his particular interest is the relation of music to the human body He argues that musical practices invariably linked to the body are inseparable from the prevailing discourses of power knowledge identity desire and sexuality With the support of 100 illustrations Leppert addresses music and the production of racism the hoarding of musical sound in a culture of scarcity musical consumption and the policing of gender the domestic piano and misogyny music and male anxiety and the social silencing of music His unexpected yoking of musicology and art history in particular his original insights into the relationships between music visual representation and the history of the body make exciting reading for scholars students and all those interested in society and the arts The Selected Papers of Jane Addams Jane Addams, 2019-02-15 In 1889 an unknown but determined Jane Addams arrived in the immigrant burdened politically corrupt and environmentally challenged Chicago with a vision for achieving a more secure satisfying and hopeful life for all Eleven years later her scheme as she called it had become Hull House and stood as the template for the creation of the American settlement house movement while Addams's writings and speeches attracted a growing audience to her ideas and work The third volume in this acclaimed series documents Addams's creation of Hull House and her rise to worldwide fame as the acknowledged female leader of progressive reform It also provides evidence of her growing commitment to pacifism Here we see Addams a force of thought action and commitment forming lasting relationships with her Hull House neighbors and the Chicago community of civic political and social leaders even as she matured as an organizer leader and fund raiser and as a sought after speaker and writer The papers reveal her positions on reform challenges while illuminating her strategies successes and responses to failures At the same time the collection brings to light Addams's private life Letters and other documents trace how many of her Hull House and reform alliances evolved into deep lasting friendships and also explore the challenges she faced as her role in her own family life became more complex Fully annotated and packed with illustrations The Selected Papers of Jane Addams Volume 3 is a portrait of a woman as she changed and as she changed history Lawrence Alma Tadema Louise Lippincott, 1991-09-05 The works of the late Victorian painter Lawrence Alma Tadema have recently enjoyed a revived interest This second volume in the Getty Museum Studies on Art focuses on Spring one of Alma Tadema's most renowned paintings The book is lavishly illustrated and includes many details of the painting The author traces the history of the painting and provides an analysis of its sources composition and symbolism Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record, 1898 Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library, the Fogg Art Museum Harvard University. Fine Arts Library, 1971 Sound Judgment Richard Leppert, 2023-05-31 The essays in Sound Judgment span the full career of Richard Leppert from his earliest to work that appears here for the first time on subjects drawn from early modernity to the present concerning music both popular and classical European and North American Noted for his path breaking interdisciplinary scholarship on music and visual culture the collection includes key essays on music's visualization in art practices in virtually all visual media including film The fourteen essays comprising this volume demonstrate Leppert's many contributions to critical musicology particularly in the areas of aesthetics as well as social and intellectual history all of it grounded in a heterodox body of critical and cultural theory with the work of Theodor W Adorno particularly noteworthy The collection is preceded by an introduction in which Leppert traces his intellectual development defined in large part by the social cultural and political upheavals of the 1960s and their aftermath both in the academy and in society at large

Christina Rossetti Emma Mason, 2018 Christina Rossetti 1830-94 is regarded as one of the greatest Christian poets to write in English While Rossetti has firmly secured her place in the canon her religious poetry was for a long time either overlooked or considered evidence of a melancholic disposition burdened by faith Recent scholarship has redressed reductive readings of Christian theology as repressive by rethinking it as a form of compassionate politics This shift has enabled new readings of Rossetti's work not simply as a body of significant nineteenth century devotional literature but also as a marker of religion's relevance to modern concerns through its reflections on science and materialism as well as spirituality and mysticism Emma Mason offers a compelling study of Christina Rossetti arguing that her poetry diaries letters and devotional commentaries are engaged with both contemporary theological debate and an emergent ecological agenda In chapters on the Catholic Revival Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood contemporary debates on plant and animal being and the relationship between grace and apocalypse Mason reads Rossetti's theology as an argument for spiritual materialism and ecological transformation She ultimately suggests that Rossetti's life and work captures the experience of faith as one of loving intimacy with the minutiae of creation a divine body in which all things material and immaterial human and nonhuman divine and embodied are interconnected

The Routledge

Handbook of Victorian Rebels Brenda Ayres, 2025-02-19 Although history records that the British nineteenth century was obsessed with order conventionality and conformity there were many Victorians from all walks of life across lines of class race and gender who resisted social mores and sometimes the laws themselves in a variety of ways and to varying degrees Some expressed dissension through music art literature and social protest Others were more subtle like manipulative wives who gained what they wanted while seemingly remaining docile and submissive Some rebellion fermented into social and political movements The revolt of still others was extremely executed by serial killers criminals and suicides Contemporary readers can learn from these rebels and discern what values and ways that were uniquely Victorian should be retained and those that should be rejected after having observed their outcomes To that end this collection of essays offers a study for both novice and expert on Victorian rebels

Scottish Art in the Industrial Age, 1800-1914 Frances Fowle, 2025-11-11 This volume examines the emergence of a market for Scottish art among Scotland's wealthy industrialists in the mid nineteenth century and in the period leading up to the First World War As well as considering key mercantile collectors such as James Guthrie Orchar and James Keiller in Dundee James Duncan in Greenock John Forbes White in Aberdeen and Sir William Burrell and William McInnes in Glasgow it focuses on major art dealers such as Alexander Reid who gave the artists Joseph Crawhall George Henry and E A Hornel their first solo exhibitions In Edinburgh Scottish artists were supported initially by Alexander Hill and later by Peter McOmish Dott at the Scottish Gallery who supported the Scottish Colourists in the early 20th century Accompanied by extensive editorial commentary this collection will be of great interest to students of Art History and Scottish History Inventing Edward Lear Sara Lodge,2018-11-30 Inventing Edward Lear is an exceptional valuable original study presenting new materials on aspects of Lear s life and work Jenny Uglow author of Mr Lear and The Lunar Men Edward Lear wrote some of the best loved poems in English including The Owl and the Pussycat but the father of nonsense was far more than a poet He was a naturalist a brilliant landscape painter an experimental travel writer and an accomplished composer Sara Lodge presents the fullest account yet of Lear s passionate engagement in the intellectual social and cultural life of his times Lear had a difficult start in life He was epileptic asthmatic and depressive but even as a child a consummate performer who projected himself into others affections He became by John James Audubon s estimate one of the greatest ornithological artists of the age Queen Victoria an admirer chose him to be her painting teacher He popularized the limerick set Tennyson s verse to music and opened fresh doors for children and adults to share fantasies of magical escape Lodge draws on diaries letters and new archival sources to paint a vivid picture of Lear that explores his musical influences his religious nonconformity his relationship with the Pre Raphaelite movement and the connections between his scientific and artistic work He invented himself as a character awkward but funny absurdly sympathetic In Lodge s hands Lear emerges as a dynamic and irreverent polymath whose conversation continues to draw us in Inventing Edward Lear is an original and moving account of one of the most intriguing and creative of all Victorians William Holman Hunt Frederic William Farrar,Alice Meynell,1893 Catalogue of Auction Christie, Manson & Woods,1982-06-04 British Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1575-1875 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Katharine Baetjer,2009 Covering the period between the late 16th century through to the third quarter of the 19th century this book features paintings by English Scottish Welsh and Irish artists which are part of the collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art Circulations in the Global History of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann,Catherine Dossin,Béatrice Joyeux-Prunel,2016-03-03 The project of global art history calls for balanced treatment of artifacts and a unified approach This volume emphasizes questions of transcultural encounters and exchanges as circulations It presents a strategy that highlights the processes and connections among cultures and also responds to the dynamics at work in the current globalized art world The editors introduction provides an account of the historical background to this approach to global art history stresses the inseparable bond of theory and practice and suggests a revaluation of materialist historicism as an underlying premise Individual contributions to the book provide an overview of current reflection and research on issues of circulation in relation to global art history and the globalization of art past and present They offer a variety of methods and approaches to the treatment of different periods regions and objects surveying both questions of historiography and methodology and presenting individual case studies An Afterword by James Elkins gives a critique of the present project The book thus deliberately leaves discussion open inviting future responses to the large questions it poses Painting the Bible Michaela Giebelhausen, 2017-07-05 Painting the Bible is the first book to investigate the transformations that religious painting underwent in mid Victorian England It charts the emergence of a Protestant realist painting in a period of increasing doubt scientific discovery and biblical criticism The book analyzes the position of religious painting in academic discourse and assesses the important role Pre Raphaelite work played in redefining painting for mid Victorian audiences This original study brings together a wide range of material from high art and popular culture It locates the controversy over the religious works of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood in debates about academicism revivalism and caricature It also investigates William Holman Hunt's radical orientalist realist approach to biblical subject matter which offered an important updating of the image of Christ that chimed with the principles of liberal Protestantism The book will appeal to scholars and students across disciplines such as art history literature history and cultural studies Its original research rigorous analysis and accessible style will make it essential reading for anyone interested in questions of representation and belief in mid Victorian England
