Marvelous Myths Russell W Dalton, 2011-04-01 What makes someone a hero In the early 1960s the image of a superhero was someone with a square jaw a muscular build and a quick smile whose biggest personal problem was trying to keep their girlfriends from guessing their secret identities Then writer Stan Lee and artists Jack Kirby and Steve Ditko created a group of superheroes who revolutionized comics These heroes including The Fantastic Four The Incredible Hulk Spider man The X men Iron Man Captain America and others were not perfect heroes living in a perfect world but fallible people with physical ailments and personal problems like our own While the authors and artists who created them did not intend to write explicitly religious stories their tales of imperfect heroes who try to do the right thing despite the many challenges they face provide us with the opportunity to reflect on our own faith journeys as we strive to live heroic lives in the real world Each chapter reflects on the heroes most famous adventures and discusses the ways in which we are called to overcome many of the same obstacles they face as we strive to carry out the ministries to which God calls us Each chapter ends with questions for reflection or group study Life of Lorenzo De'Medici, Called the Magnificent William Roscoe,1846 The Walking Dead #47 Robert Kirkman,2008-04-12 Mother and Child No one is safe DF ROMITA LEGACY HC ROMITA SR and JR COVER ART ED ,2010-05-18 The Romitas are one of the few royal families in comics If you haven't had a chance to fully appreciate their work here's your chance It's a fun ride I hope you enjoy it as much as we have in putting this book together With an introduction by Alex Ross and an afterword by Stan The Man Lee this hardcover book is perfect for every Spider Man fan young and old
