Directions: Read the main ideas for sections JCE and use Chapter 2 + Section 2 of the textbook to complete the statements with the words included in the column titled answers. There is one summary sentence for each answer; the question is the space provided.

A. Main Idea: English colonists, ideas about the role and shape of government influenced the growth of the colonies, the form that institutions took, and the system of government that later took.

1. Answer: Charters, customs, and administrative laws helped form the important contributions to the founding principles and development of the United States.

2. The principle that a government's power is derived absolutely from the Magna Carta, which the English people have regarded as a guarantee of Answer: government.

3. The English Answer: Bill of Rights, and other documents that increasingly and ultimately established the concept applied to them and gave them the same rights as people living in Britain.

4. The English system of Answer: law, especially as organized by the British Parliament, was widely followed in the colonies.

5. Britain's Parliament, with delegates representing the people, was a familiar example of Answer: representative government, but they disliked it.

6. Thomas Hooker developed the Answer: Social Compact, theory which suggested that people give up their individual sovereignty to the government in exchange for the government's maintenance of law and order.

7. John Locke believed that people have Answer: natural rights, as human beings and a government that failed to protect them has lost its legitimacy.

8. James Madison called Answer: laws, rights, liberties, freedom's four basic rights and freedoms; he argued Answer: any people in a community independently created a social contract to protect their rights while creating law and government.

9. Charles-Louis de Montesquieu suggested Answer: separation, the process of government.

10. Main Idea: Each of the thirteen colonies had its own government consisting
