both individuals and societies and the discovery through music of what and how to value With a combination of cultural criticism and close readings of musical works the contributors demonstrate repeatedly that to make music is also to make value in every sense They give particular attention to values that have historically enabled music to assume a formative role in human societies to foster practices of contemplation fantasy and irony to explore sexuality subjectivity and the uncanny and to articulate longings for unity with nature and for moral certainty Each essay in the collection shows in its own way how music may provoke transformative reflection in its listeners and thus help guide humanity to its own essential embodiment in the world The range of topics is broad and developed with an eye both to the historical specificity of values and to the variety of their possible incarnations The music is both canonical and noncanonical old and new Although all of it is classical the contributors treatment of it yields conclusions that apply well beyond the classical sphere The composers discussed include Gabrieli Marenzio Haydn Beethoven Mendelssohn Brahms Wagner Puccini Hindemith Schreker and Henze Anyone interested in music as it is studied today will find this volume essential reading Ebony ,1981-02 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print Bowker Editorial Staff,2004-02 Catalog of
