

Walking with GOD Chapter	CHAPTER 3: EGYPT and Exodus
Bible References	I - Exodus 3-5, 11-12,14,16,17 II - Exodus 19, 20, 23-25, 32, 37-50
Stories	(I)Moses, Plagues, Red Sea, Manna (II) Ten Commandments, Rules to live by, Rules for worship, Tabernacle, Ark, Golden Calf, Levitical priesthood, Covenant Renewal

Nearly four hundred years, or ten generations, have gone by since Jacob's family settled in Egypt's best land, the land of Goshen. Given that so many generations had spent their entire lives in Egypt, it is not surprising that Israel has become accustomed to the culture, practices, and even religion of Egypt. Pharaoh fears the Israelites' growing numbers and responds with slavery; the Egyptians "made their lives bitter with hard service" (Exo 1:14).

1. When Moses went up to Mount Horeb, what mission did God give him? How did Moses react? (Exo 3: 7-12).

Answer	God tells Moses that he has looked down and seen the affliction of his people and that he will send Moses to Pharaoh to bring the people of Israel out of Egypt. Since Moses is a man under death sentence for killing an Egyptian beating a Hebrew slave, he is not immediately convinced of his chances for success. He asks, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the sons of Israel out of Egypt?". The Lord reassures Moses, promising that he himself will be "with him."

The Egyptians practiced a polytheistic religion with many gods, not only worshiping these gods but also their manifestations in created animals and realities. After ten generations in Egypt, the Israelites would certainly be accustomed to hearing the names of many gods daily. When Moses returns to Egypt and announces God's plan to the Israelites, the first question put to him would likely be, "Which god sent you?" God answers Moses' request and reveals his name: Yahweh meaning "I am who I am." The name Yahweh means that God is with his people. Yahweh is not a distant God, but a God who is present. Here, at the burning bush, Moses is the first of God's people to learn God's inmost, secret name. The Lord reveals his name, and Moses will work signs and wonders in God's name! In the New Testament, Jesus will say, "Whenever two or more are gathered in my name, there I am in their midst" (emphasis added); invoking Jesus' name invokes his presence (CCC 2666).

2. How does the Lord respond when Moses tells him he is not qualified, i.e., he is slow of speech? (Exo. 4: 10-17).

Answer	"Who has made man's mouth? Who makes him mute, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Is it not I, the LORD? Now therefore go, and I will

Saner,2015-09-15 Few phrases in Scripture have occasioned as much discussion as has the I am who I am of Exodus 3 14 What does this phrase mean How does it relate to the divine name YHWH Is it an answer to Moses question v 13 or an evasion of an answer The trend in late nineteenth and twentieth century scholarly interpretations of this verse was to superimpose later Christian interpretations which built on Greek and Latin translations on the Hebrew text According to such views the text presents an etymology of the divine name that suggests God s active presence with Israel or what God will accomplish for Israel the text does not address the nature or being of God However this trend presents challenges to theological interpretation which seeks to consider critically the value pre modern Christian readings have for faithful appropriations of Scripture today In Too Much to Grasp Exodus 3 13 15 and the Reality of God Andrea Saner argues for an alternative way forward for twenty first century readings of the passage using Augustine of Hippo as representative of the misunderstood interpretive tradition Read within the literary contexts of the received form of the book of Exodus and the Pentateuch as a whole the literal sense of Exodus 3 13 15 addresses both who God is as well as God s action The I am who I am of v 14a expresses indefiniteness while God reveals himself as YHWH and offers this name for the Israelites to call upon him God is not exhausted by this revelation but rather remains beyond human comprehension and control
