Notes: I have omitted gender-neutral language; I don't know an official French high school official name in English for middle school-high-school for the general level in Germany; whereas administrative is often identical, the term high school is literary from English; the Abkürzungen are as in 1988 for central planning education about educational institutions. Source: Author's database.

His original 1982 document was the first rule. It has been updated five times and covered a range of things that it did not cover before, but all agreed that the original set of rules remains relevant.
