Atomic Nucleus and Radioactivity

Radiometric Dating

Radioactive Speed Dating

Purpose: To correctly estimate the age of the various virtual objects (skulls, rocks, etc.) using the principles of radiometric dating

PhET simulation: "Radioactive Dating Game" (available at <http://phet.colorado.edu/en/simulation/radioactive-dating-game>)

Discussion:

Radiometric dating is a nuclear decay-based method for determining the age of very old things. Here's how it works: Radioactive nuclei transform from one nuclear structure to another at a mathematically reliable rate. In a given amount of time, half the original nuclei have decayed to the new nuclear structure. That given amount of time is called the "half-life." After one half-life, half of the original nucleus remains. After two half-lives, a quarter remains, and so on. By measuring the percent of the original nuclei that remain, the age of the decaying sample can be determined. For example, carbon-14 has a half-life of 5700 years. If an object were found in which 25.0% of the original carbon-14 remained, the age of the object would be taken as approximately 11,400 years (see chart we have completed in class). Other percentages can be translated to ages using an exponential function.

Procedure

Step 1:

Open the "Radioactive Dating Game" simulation. Click on the "Dating Game" tab in the simulation window.
