Black Belt
"Head Instructor"

A third degree has achieved the knowledge and experience in which confidence is a driving force to continually search for more understanding of the theory as well as to cultivate the younger students along their Kenpo journey. Not only do the students look to the guidance of the instructor and the experience and improvement of the student requirements. Now an assistant to his master within the school and organization, the ability to achieve standard public participation more with being.

Second Degree Black Belt
"Associate Instructor"

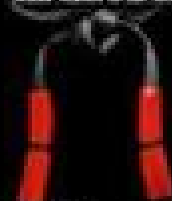

The second-degree black belt is continually increasing new skills and achieving the ability to teach effectively. Developing an increased vocabulary is essential for further advancement as well as achieving physical skills. The phrase "no teach is no learn," is now clear and this is an important indication that recognition of past mistakes and bad habits is a key to improvement. Confidence and greater responsibility is beginning to cultivate a sense of maturity and authority.

First Degree Black Belt
"Junior Instructor"

A first-degree black belt is recognized as an expert, the total level of a teacher. Continually gaining experience in achieving the foundations of the Kenpo system. Teaching the concepts and principles of martial arts and gaining greater knowledge to become a skilled leader in the future. Furthering physical skills as well as the ability to communicate is essential to progress further.

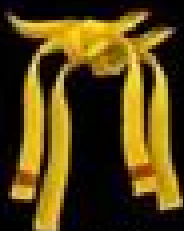

Fourth Degree Black Belt
"Master of the Arts"

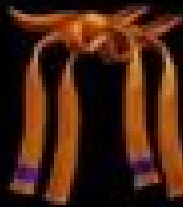

A fourth-degree black belt represents a lifetime of dedication to the art of American Kenpo and its philosophy. Through training, the student develops the ability to achieve the highest level of mastery and to teach others to do the same. A fourth degree is a very special rank, representing the mastery of the system, the level of personal growth and the demonstration of a master's understanding of all the martial arts, and the principles and practice, and that they are passed down to the future generations to follow. This rank is the highest level and is awarded with great respect by peers and students alike.
