

UNIT 1

Have students read the guide for the unit and learn new words that are unfamiliar to them. Have students add these words to the glossary. Words: Ward, along with definitions.

You may also want to assign these guides to a whole group in the classroom for the duration of this unit, allowing you and your students to revisit the guide orally and gauge progress toward achieving goals throughout the unit.

VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT

In your term paper in this unit, you should use new words in your writing. You should use words in multiple contexts (read and write) to learn them, which are words in the students' glossary and language arts.

Adding to vocabulary knowledge is important for reading fluency. Students will encounter new vocabulary in this course in multiple ways.

- Academic Vocabulary
- Literary Terms
- Misconceptions in each subtheme (often glossed)
- Word Connections
- Oral Discussions

Encourage students to read in Reader/Writer Notebooks in which they record new words and their meanings. Encourage students to use words in multiple contexts to learn them. Encourage students to use words in multiple contexts to learn them. Encourage students to use words in multiple contexts to learn them.

Use the Glossary section at the back of this book for examples of graphic organizers suitable for word study. As students become more familiar with using graphic organizers to explore the meaning of words, you may want them to create their own graphic organizers.
