O Woman, Great is Your Faith! Douglas Sean O'Donnell,2021-08-26 The concept of faith holds a central position in New Testament and early Christian thought yet this concept has not received the careful attention it deserves in the Synoptic Gospels The present study offers a comprehensive analysis of faith as a key motif in the Gospel of Matthew where it plays a major role in communicating this Gospel s vision for how readers should respond to the person and message of Jesus The argument propounded is that Matthew s unique narrative portrayal of the Canaanite woman s faith 15 21 28 is used for pedagogical purposes namely that by comparing and contrasting her great faith with those characters expressing no faith and little faith Matthew uses Jesus s quantitative terms to teach on the nature of true faith She embodies Matthew s theological vision of faith Even though she is a gentile outsider enemy she comprehends the universal scope and abundant blessings of Jesus s mission Moreover she acknowledges Jesus s messianic identity correctly perceiving him to be both David s royal heir and David s Lord Finally based on who she perceives Jesus to be and the purpose of his mission she demonstrates faith as trust manifested in action

No Outsiders: We Belong Here Andrew Moffat,2024-04-18 What does modern Britain look like and how do we prepare our children for life in an ever changing world We want children to be able to live and work anywhere and with anyone without fear and without judgement Schools need a strong confident framework where young people are taught to explore and value their own identities and the identities of others No Outsiders is a whole school ethos teaching children that everyone is different and everyone belongs there are no outsiders at our school because everyone is welcome Using this book and a common language threaded throughout the school we can work to challenge prejudice in wider society The book includes 43 lesson plans and assembly ideas A framework to deliver an inclusive curriculum built around picture books written for children aged 4 11 many of which will already be in school libraries The stories of Head Teachers speaking of their journeys challenges and successes Innovative
