3. (a) With the number "3" indicate the most likely location on the map of a major volcanic mountain range similar to the Andes in South America.
(b) What type of plate boundary is this? _____
(c) What evidence shown on the map indicates that this type of boundary is present?
4. (a) With the number "4" indicate the most likely location on the map of a volcanic island arc.
(b) What type of plate boundary is this? _____
(c) What evidence shown on the map indicates that this type of boundary is present?
5. With the number "5" label all plate boundaries where oceanic trenches should be found.
6. (a) Assume that only one of the volcanoes on the map is associated with a hot spot. With the number "6" label this volcano.
(b) With a 2-centimeter (about 1-inch) long arrow extending from this volcano, indicate the direction in which you would expect to find progressively older extinct volcanoes left by the hot spot.
7. In the space below, draw an approximate continuous cross section ("side view") of the ocean basin from Point "A" to Point "B" (from lower left to upper right). Use the "side view" drawings on page 228 and Figure 33-2 for reference, and use arrows to indicate the relative direction of plate motion. If subduction is taking place, clearly show which plate is subducting beneath the other.

Experiential Learning in Geography Jonathan E. Wessell, 2021-11-01 This book provides insight into the importance and impacts that experiential learning has in geographic education by examining the experience the methods of evaluation and the encounters that students have shared about their experiences It allows the reader to gain insight into what it really takes to prepare and lead students in such experiences both domestically and internationally The book can be used as a guide to planning but also demonstrates the use of experiential learning theory throughout these experiences and especially the importance of reflection by the students on what they are experiencing The book is beneficial to students and faculty alike that are studying geography education Climate--Weather or Not Hands-On Activity Sarah D. Giese,2014-01-01 Make geography fun and interactive to motivate your students Encourage teamwork creativity reflection and decision making Take an active approach to teaching while inspiring your students to make their own explorations of geography Gardeners' Chronicle ,1861
