The 50 Most Significant Individuals in Recorded History Stan Russo, 2005-04 This book contains a subjective ranking of the 50 most significant men and women throughout recorded history The author Stan Russo conducted more than four years of meticulous research on 500 important figures throughout the ages before settling on this list Each person's reasons for inclusion are described in a countdown format leading up to the most significant individual The book not only provided an educational and entertaining look at numerous cultures and time periods in the process but also builds suspense with each page as readers guess which person comes next and why After the top ranked name is revealed the author then provides his rationale for why other famous men and women did not make the cut This book is an excellent resource for educators and all fans of history by serving as a starting point for further debate and discussion Reintroduce the fun back into historical studies Learn about individuals who might otherwise have gone unrecognized See if your own favorite figures from history made the list Whether you agree or disagree with the choices and the order they are listed in you ll think about history in new ways Hayden White Herman Paul,2011-08-08 This new book offers a clear and accessible exposition of Hayden White s thought In an engaging and wide ranging analysis Herman Paul discusses White s core ideas and traces the development of these ideas from the mid 1950s to the present Starting with White s medievalist research and youthful fascination for French existentialism Paul shows how White became increasingly convinced that historical writing is a moral activity He goes on to argue that the critical concepts that have secured White s fame trope plot discourse figural realism all stem from his desire to explicate the moral claims and perceptions underlying historical writing White emerges as a passionate thinker a restless rebel against scientism and a defender of existentialist humanist values This innovative introduction will appeal to students and scholars across the humanities and help develop a critical understanding of an increasingly important thinker Redefining Stalinism Harold Shukman,2004-11-23 Born in 1879 in Georgia Stalin joined the Bolsheviks under Lenin in 1903 and became General Secretary of the Communist Party in 1922 These edited papers reassess the deeds policies and legacy of a man who was responsible for innumerable deaths and untold human misery Making Animal Meaning Linda Kalof,Georgina M. Montgomery,2011-12-01 An elucidating collection of ten original essays Making Animal Meaning reconceptualizes methods for researching animal histories and rethinks the contingency of the human animal relationship The vibrant and diverse field of animal studies is detailed in these interdisciplinary discussions which include voices from a broad range of scholars and have an extensive chronological and geographical reach These exciting discourses capture the most compelling theoretical underpinnings of animal significance while exploring meaning making through the study of specific spaces species and human animal relations A deeply thoughtful collection vital to understanding central questions of agency kinship and animal consumption these essays tackle the history and philosophy of constructing animal meaning Eco-Justice--The Unfinished Journey William E. Gibson,2012-02-01 Eco Justice The Unfinished Journey links ecological sustainability and social justice from an ethical and often theological perspective Eco justice defined as the well being of all humankind on a thriving earth began as a movement during the 1970s responding to massive sobering evidence that nature imposes limits limits to production and consumption with profound implications for distributive justice and limits to the human numbers sustainable by habitat earth This collection includes contributions from the leading interpreters of the eco justice movement as it recounts the evolution of the Eco Justice Project
