

The Declaration of Arbroath

The Declaration of Arbroath was a document sent by Robert the Bruce and Scottish nobles to the Pope, requesting that Scotland be recognised as an independent country.

Using the lines below, and guided by the position of the simplified figure during the event, answer the questions.

If you were Robert the Bruce, what would you be thinking when the Declaration of Arbroath was being written?

If you were one of the Scottish nobles, how would you be feeling when the Declaration was being written?

If you were the Pope, what would you be thinking when you received the Declaration of Arbroath?

If you were the English King, how would you feel knowing that the Scottish nobles had written to the Pope requesting that Scotland be recognised as an independent country?

If you were Robert the Bruce, how would you feel when Scotland was granted independence?

If you were the English King, how would you feel when Scotland was granted independence?
