The Oxford Handbook of the History of Psychology: Global Perspectives David B. Baker,2012 The science and practice of psychology has evolved around the world on different trajectories and timelines yet with a convergence on the recognition of the need for a human science that can confront the challenges facing the world today Few would argue that the standard narrative of the history of psychology has emphasized European and American traditions over others but in today s global culture there is a greater need in psychology for international understanding This volume describes the historical development of psychology in countries throughout the world Contributors provide narratives that examine the political and socioeconomic forces that have shaped their nations psychologies Each unique story adds another element to our understanding of the history of psychology The chapters in this volume remind us that there are unique contexts and circumstances that influence the ways in which the science and practice of psychology are assimilated into our daily lives Making these contexts and circumstances explicit through historical research and writing provides some promise of greater international insight as well as a better understanding of the human condition

Disrupting Disruption David Kirp,Marjorie Wechsler,Madelyn Gardner,Titilayo Tinubu Ali,2022 A compelling account of how US public schools can boost student achievement and close race and class opportunity gaps In recent years the constant drive to fix schools has bred cynicism resentment and at times unbridled anger In a field where camaraderie and collegial relationships are highly valued it is surprising that there is so little sustainable and focused collaboration among schools and school districts on how to improve Is disruption whether by inflicting a discipline and punish regime on our nation's schools or replacing them with charters or vouchers the only way forward In Disrupting Disruption David Kirp and his coauthors look closely at three seemingly ordinary school districts Union Oklahoma Union City New Jersey and Roanoke Virginia that have overcome the fragmentation isolation and lost learning opportunities of the public school system These school districts resemble others across the country where many students come from low income families Yet they have a relentless focus on developing and supporting teachers and engaged students constantly seeking ways to improve the use of data to enhance learning not punish partnerships with parents and local organizations and stable supportive leadership As the authors show each of these districts have consistently improved graduation rates and closed opportunity gap for Black and Latino students With vivid narratives buttressed by solid quantitative research Disrupting Disruption shows how every school district can improve and learn from one another Innovation Leadership in Practice Karina R. Jensen, Stephanie Kaudela-Baum, Rob Sheffield, 2023-12-07 Innovation Leadership in Practice provides a unique source of new insights on the role of innovation leadership and effective practices through conceptual models empirical case studies development interventions and tools Proceedings of the International Scientific Conference "Smart Nations: Global Trends In The Digital Economy" Svetlana Igorevna Ashmarina, Valentina Vyacheslavovna Mantulenko, Marek Vochozka, 2022-01-28 This book contains contributions from an international scientific conference Smart Nations Global Trends In The Digital Economy which was organized by the State University of Management Moscow By presenting international research on the issues of the Smart Nations concept this book includes topics such as smart business in a smart city digital marketing systems and Smart Nations phenomenon social and business aspects The conference proceedings cover legal informational technological and other aspects of socio economic development in the context of digital innovations This work provides significant value for scientists teachers and students of higher educational institutions and specialists who are researching socio economic development issues in the era of smart technologies
