Ethics, Law and the Business of Being Human Charles Foster, 2025-09-02 This book presents an inquiry into the sort of creatures we are If we don't know what we are we can have no idea how to behave or thrive either as individuals or as a society This book in a series of short essays addresses the most fundamental question facing each of us We are not here long how then should we live as individuals and as members of society Philosophers and lawyers have long asked the question but their answers are often garbled and they have not learned a language in which to talk to one another The Academy which should lead the debate is often too riddled with presumption and systemic dysfunction to be either useful or interesting Foster surveys the academic and legal landscape critically and suggests how some of the ills can be remedied
