Kristan, 2019-09-23 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2018 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.0 University of Erfurt Philosophische Fakultät course Literature in Images Graphic Novels language English abstract This work analyzes the perception of authenticity in Fun Home Alison Bechdel's Fun Home from 2007 is a graphic memoir that tries to create a sense of truthfulness to the reality of the author's memories by employing various means This paper examines the techniques Bechdel uses for the creation of what may look for the reader like authenticity By using for example Philippe Lejeune's autobiographical pact the text closely analyzes the presentation of text and image concerning the protagonist Alison and the narrating voice as well as the role of photographs in the text By investigating the protagonist's self portrayal through text and images this paper tries to point out the successfulness of appearing truth of the story as well as distinguish in which instance a disruption of before identified means in form of fictionalization can be found in the text and how this influences the perception of its authenticity The second part of the paper then focuses on photography as another means to invoke a perception of truthfulness in the text with special attention to photography as means of memory and truth based on theories by Roland Barthes and Marianne Hirsch as well as its possible fictionalization through the confines of the graphic novel genre and its significance in relation to the text's authenticity

Intertextuality in Alison Bechdel's "Fun Home", 2020-02-25 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Literature Modern Literature grade 3.0 University of Erfurt course Literature in Images Graphic Novels language English abstract A lot of graphic novels work with Intertextuality because as a visual medium they can represent or quote another text even better than a normal novel Alison Bechdel's Fun Home is a prime example of those graphic novels that use intertextuality Her memoir is full of pop culture and book references My thesis is that the literary works and stories she has woven into her story mirror her own story and exist to further illustrate her struggles coming of age The structure of the paper is going to be the following first comes a short introduction on Intertextuality assisted by Graham Allen's Introduction to Intertextuality and Roland Barthes' Death of the Author. The next part, which is going to be the main part, focuses of course on Intertextuality in Fun Home. Starting off the first subchapter is going to be about the repeated usage of the myth of Daedalus and Icarus as a display of the relationship between Alison and her father Bruce Bechdel. I would like to search for the connection between this analogy especially how it was used and why.

Graphic Subjects Michael A. Chaney, 2011-03-01. Some of the most noteworthy graphic novels and comic books of recent years have been entirely autobiographical. In Graphic Subjects Michael A. These essays, accompanied by visual examples, illuminate the new horizons that illustrated autobiographical narrative creates. The volume insightfully highlights the ways that graphic novelists and literary cartoonists have incorporated history, experience, and life stories into their work. The result is a challenging and innovative collection that reveals the combined power of autobiography and the graphic novel.

Book Jacket: Are You My Mother? Alison Bechdel, 2012-05-01. The New York Times bestselling graphic memoir about Alison Bechdel, author of Fun Home, becoming the artist her mother wanted to be. Alison Bechdel's Fun Home was a pop culture and literary phenomenon. Now a second, thrilling tale of filial sleuthery, this time about her mother: voracious reader, music lover, passionate amateur actor. Also a woman unhappily married to a closeted gay man whose artistic aspirations simmered under the surface of Bechdel's childhood and who stopped touching or kissing her daughter good night forever when she was seven. Poignantly, hilariously, Bechdel embarks on a quest for answers concerning the mother-daughter gulf. It's a richly layered search that leads readers from the fascinating life and work of the iconic twentieth-century psychoanalyst Donald Winnicott to one explosively illuminating Dr. Seuss illustration to Bechdel's own serially monogamous adult love life. And finally back to Mother to a truce, fragile and real, time that will move and astonish all adult children of gifted mothers.
