Diversity and Aging Among Immigrant Seniors in Canada Douglas Durst,Michael MacLean,2010-01-01 Historically Canada has been a nation of immigrants with 16 20% of its citizens being foreign born Most immigrant research addresses the issues of integration and adjustment of young and adult immigrants with little work on aging There are numerous books on immigrants and books on aging but there are few that have considered the topics of both diversity and aging Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada breaks from that tradition and offers an eclectic collection of original research from among Canada s leading researchers on aging and immigrants Some researchers refer to this emerging field as Ethno gerontology There are two interesting groups of immigrant seniors those who entered Canada at over 65 years of age and those who aged in Canada Most Canadians are surprised to learn that the senior population of seniors has a higher percentage of immigrants 19 6% than the general population 13 7% As Canadians age the country s composition of immigrant seniors has also changed from mainly European to greater cultural and ethnic diversity from Africa and Asia This cultural and ethnic diversity has social health economic policy implications and impacts on programs and services delivered to seniors Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada is divided into two main sections In Part 1 the chapters explore general and universal issues such as national trends and demographics theoretical orientations issues of culture and legal dimensions poverty and income and end of life care In Part 2 the chapters examine issues pertaining to specific ethnic groups For example there are chapters on the social well being of Chinese immigrants determinants of mental health for Iranian seniors family dynamics for aging Haitian elders and emerging issues for Punjabi families Diversity and Aging among Immigrant Seniors in Canada offers both breadth and depth to the topic of aging among immigrants and is a must read for social work and health care professionals students in health and social services policy and program planners and families of aging immigrants It is written in a language that crosses disciplines shedding professional jargon making it an informative and engaging read for experience presents a deep puzzle On the one hand a fairly robust materialism must be true in order to explain how it is that conscious events causally interact with non conscious physical events On the other hand we cannot explain how physical phenomena give rise to conscious experience In this wide ranging study Joseph Levine explores both sides of the mind body dilemma presenting the first book length treatment of his highly influential ideas on the explanatory gap the fact that we can t explain the nature of phenomenal experience in terms of its physical realization He presents a careful argument that there is such a gap and after providing intriguing analyses of virtually all existing theories of consciousness shows that recent attempts to close it fall short of the mark Levine concludes that in the foreseeable future consciousness will remain a mystery she s so not going to put up with it Mo t Arkady is a Lecora cursed by an ancient swamp magic so that any man she kisses could end up not only possessing HER but a lifetime of fabulously good luck to boot Not exactly helpful when returning home after years of banishment BAM Mo t s plane crashes right into the swamp that created the curse in the first place So when Mo t must play good Samaritan to a drowning passenger what was that A kiss Better not be because he s Moses Gentry the now the Consortium s lead attorney and pretty great at stealing kisses Mo t could sure use some good luck herself And that
