Spitzer, 2022-04-29 From Thunder Road I don t know why we stared at that dead pterodactyl chick so long there wasn t anything particularly striking or even gross about it there were no flies for example no maggots just a couple of butterflies one white and the other burnt orange which matched the fading sunlight Maybe it was our nonstop ride all the way from Biggs Junction near the Washington border to Multnomah Falls which was closer to Portland I mean it s a lot of work peddling a BMX bicycle some 70 plus miles even across level terrain Or maybe it was how paper thin the creature s exsanguinous oyster white skin was how almost translucent or the way its little talons weren t really talons at all but little hands like a baby s hands All I remember for certain is how contemplative everyone seemed to get while looking down at it

how funereal even elegiac like we were saying goodbye to one of our own All I remember for certain is something akin to holding vigil for a fellow traveler which in a very real sense we were For him the war is over I whispered although I doubt anyone heard me over the crash and roar of the falls I wonder where Mom is Not here that s for sure said Quint There are no nests I followed his gaze into the treetops and beyond to the waterfall itself which dashed and cascaded down the cliffs Weird I mean where the hell could it have come from Maybe it came from up there said Jesse From the very top There s there s a platform up there a wooden observation deck We came here on a field trip once and hiked up to it Be a good place to build a nest real stable And defensible I looked from one end of the concrete bridge Benson Bridge the sign had called it which was closed off with cyclone fencing to the other Speaking of which this bridge looks pretty defensible don t you think I peered off the way we had come Only one side to protect we can take turns standing watch I mean it may not be the Ritz but what do you say We looked around and then at each other Hell I m in said Quint We can even build a fire and maybe eat something something hot I mean It ll be just like it ll be just like Camp Courage I couldn t help but to notice he d stopped short of saying home and a quick glance at Jesse confirmed he d noticed it too although whether he d done so because his own home life had sucked or because he d understood in that moment that because of the Flashback we d never see home again I don t know Sure why not said Jesse We can heat up that beef stew the one we were saving for Portland We re close enough He shrugged off his pack and spear and laid down his bike And besides it ll lighten my load He dug out the can of Dinty Moore stew and paused looking at it Seems almost wasteful though doesn t it I mean you d like to think you d like to think nothing was born just to lay there and rot you know We all turned to look at the bird Yeah said Quint I mean it s like God laid it out there just for us and here we are wanting to eat something from a can I got off my bike and reached for my pocketknife touched its smooth imitation wood handle We re going to have to learn how to hunt eventually I suppose I mean I already know how to hunt said Quint And to clean and dress a I know how to do that too He held out his hand for my knife which I gave over to him slowly reluctantly And since both you pussies missed man school I guess I ll be the one to have to show you Jesse looked at me and then back to Quint Let me guess Because attributes Because attributes said Quint and got off his bike

The Legend of Sleepy Hollow & Other Stories Washington Irving, 2025-03-11 Ichabod Crane a schoolteacher came to Tarry Town in the glen of Sleepy Hollow to ply his trade in educating young minds He was a gullible and excitable fellow often so terrified by locals stories of ghosts that he would hurry through the woods on his way home singing to keep from hysterics Until late one night he finds that maybe they're not just stories What is that dark menacing figure riding behind him on a horse And what does it have in its hands And why wasn't schoolteacher Crane ever seen in Sleepy Hollow again This edition also includes Washington Irving's other short stories including Rip van Winkle

The End of the Dream and Other Stories John G. Neihardt, 2025-07-21 Originally published at the beginning of the twentieth century the short stories of John G Neihardt deserve to be better known Their flesh and blood Indians were practically unprecedented in an era when the fiends of dime novels and idealizations of Cooper were still the literary norm Owing much to young Neihardt's intimate association with the Omahas at their reservation in eastern Nebraska the stories were of an Indian cast that perplexed the critics They were often overlooked as the years brought laurels to the author of A Cycle of the West and Black Elk Speaks A closer look at them reveals that Neihardt was a disciplined artist from the very beginning The nine stories in this volume appeared from 1901 to 1905 in the Overland Monthly five were collected in The Lonesome Trail in 1907 All of them are informed by Neihardt's experience among Omaha Indians and shaped by the power of his imagination Except for A Prairie Borgia which clearly touches on the notorious Chief Blackbird's relations with traders all are set in the time before contact with white men Love and hate kindness and cruelty hope and despair generosity and envy honesty and guile spiritual impulse and sexual desire operate in this wholly Indian world The End of the Dream The Triumph of Seha and The Smile of God are patterned on vision quests issuing in profound irony The social outcast who figured in Neihardt s Indian Tales and Others 1927 a Bison Book appears again in adventures with a cosmic and sometimes fantastic dimension These stories as well as When the Snows Drift The Beating of the War Drums The Fading of Shadow Flower The Singing of the Frogs and The Spirit of Crow Butte have an inwardness reflected by vivid imagery Their quality led Dr Susan LaFlesche Picotte the daughter of Joseph LaFlesche Iron Eyes last chief of the Omahas to exclaim that Neihardt was the only writer in a long line extending from Cooper to Frederic Remington who possessed a true understanding of Indian character The stories were compiled by Neihardt s daughter Hilda Neihardt Petri In his introduction Jay Fultz discusses their cultural context and artistic integrity

The Sentinels and Other Stories Wayne Kyle Spitzer,2022-07-16 In a land of wind and willows two canoeists encounter some other worldly wind turbines From The Sentinels Dunn He said that he was taking the way of the wind and the sky and that he was going in to Them by which I presume he meant going into the tower and scaling the ladder And he said other things That our thoughts made patterns in their world left prints as it were as did theirs in ours and that that was how they d found us by listening to our thoughts zeroing in on our patterns And he said that Bobby was merely a bundle of sensory organs wrapped in a skin of decaying matter and so wasn t important wasn t needed That only they mattered they the beings attached to and inhabiting the turbines And that that Detective Shaw What Mrs Dunn Say it Dunn But don t you see It doesn t matter what he said because it wasn t him speaking not really Bobby would never have described a human being as just a bundle of sensory organs he truly believed with every fiber of his being that we were more than that more than just the sum of our parts it was what inspired him to become a doctor in the first place And knowing what I knew knowing what kind of man he was I pressed him telling him that Bobby did matter that he mattered to his patients and that he mattered to me more than I would ever be able to describe And then I approached him and embraced him and told him I loved him feeling for the briefest of moments the spirals beginning to close on his back and he smiled his eyes returning to normal after which he said or started to say I love room tone Detective Shaw inaudible He he told you he loved you Dunn No He his eyes rolled back and then his face it it simply imploded In a spiral Like someone had flushed a toilet full of blood and brains An Outpost of Progress and Other Stories Joseph Conrad, 2019-07-17 Drawing upon his experiences as the captain of a steamer on the Congo River Joseph Conrad wrote An Outpost of Progress a sharp critique of British colonialism that the master storyteller considered his best tale A precursor to Heart of Darkness it traces the physical and moral degradation of two English overseers at a remote African trading post offering a compelling view of the destructive effects of cultural isolation This compilation presents four additional short stories An Anarchist A Desperate Tale centering on an ex convict s association with a radical political faction in nineteenth century England The Informer An Ironic Tale a character study in political contradictions focusing on an anarchist s embrace of bourgeois values Il Conde A Pathetic Tale in which a violent crime disrupts a nobleman s visit to Naples and A Smile of Fortune which recounts how a seafarer s romantic inclinations lead him into misplacing his loyalty
