Christianity Robert Knapp,2017-08-14 Ordinary people of antiquity interacted with the supernatural through a mosaic of beliefs and rituals Exploring everyday life from 200 BCE to the end of the first century CE Robert Knapp shows that Jews and polytheists lived with the gods in very similar ways Traditional interactions provided stability even in times of crisis while changing a relationship risked catastrophe for the individual his family and his community However people in both traditions did at times leave behind their long honored rites to try something new The Dawn of Christianity reveals why some people in Judea and then in the Roman and Greek worlds embraced a new approach to the forces and powers in their daily lives Knapp traces the emergence of Christianity from its stirrings in the eastern Mediterranean where Jewish monotheism coexisted with polytheism and prayer mixed with magic In a time receptive to prophetic messages and supernatural interventions Jesus of Nazareth convinced people to change their beliefs by showing through miracles his direct connection to god like power The miracle of the Resurrection solidified Jesus s supernatural credentials After his death followers continued to use miracles and magic to spread Jesus s message of reward for the righteous in this life and immortality in the next Many Jews and polytheists strongly opposed the budding movement but despite major setbacks Christianity proved resilient and adaptable It survived long enough to be saved by a second miracle the conversion of Emperor Constantine Hand in hand with empire Christianity began its long march through history The Philosophy of William Shakespeare William Shakespeare,1857

Documenting Impossible Realities Susan Bibler Coutin,Barbara Yngvesson,2023-04-15 Documenting Impossible Realities explores the limitations of conventional accounts through which belonging is documented focusing on the experiences of adoptees deportees migrants and other exilic populations Susan Bibler Coutin and Barbara Yngvesson speak to the current historical moment in which the dichotomy between an above ground inhabited by dominant groups and an underground to which unauthorized immigrants political exiles and transnational adoptees are relegated cannot be sustained This dichotomy was made possible by the illusion that some people do not belong that some forms of kin are not real or that certain ways of knowing do not count To examine accounts that challenge such illusions Coutin and Yngvesson focus on the spaces between groups where difference is constituted and where the potential for new forms of relationship may be realized By juxtaposing and moving between entangled realities and modes of expression Documenting Impossible Realities conveys the emotional experience of oscillating between being here and gone legitimate and treated as counterfeit A Commentary on the Holy Scriptures: Joshua Johann Peter Lange, Philip Schaff, 1875 The Life and Times of Girolamo Savonarola Pasquale Villari, 1890
