the American West Eli Seavey Ricker, Richard E. Jensen, 2005-01-01 In this second volume of interviews conducted by Nebraska judge Eli S Ricker he focuses on white eyewitnesses and participants in the occupying and settling of the American West in the nineteenth century In the first decade of the twentieth century as the Old West became increasingly distant and romanticized in popular consciousness Eli S Ricker 1842 1926 began interviewing those who had experienced it firsthand hoping to write a multivolume series about its last days centering on the conflicts between Natives and outsiders For years Ricker traveled across the northern Plains gathering information on and off reservations in winter and in summer Judge Ricker never wrote his book but his interviews are priceless sources of information about that time and place and they offer more balanced perspectives on events than were accepted at the time Richard E Jensen brings together all of Ricker's interviews with those men and women who came to the American West from elsewhere settlers homesteaders and veterans These interviews shed light on such key events as the massacre at Wounded Knee the Little Bighorn battle Beecher Island Lightning Creek the Mormon cow incident and the Washita massacre Also of interest are glimpses of everyday life at different agencies including Pine Ridge Yellow Medicine and Fort Sill School brief though revealing memoirs and snapshots of cattle drives conflicts with Natives and the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad      Circular of Information of the
