A Thousand Years Perri:

A Thousand Years Christina Perri, 2025 As a mother watches her child bravely step into the world both mother and child embrace change and share a love that continues to grow Based on the Christina Perri song A Thousand Years Last Moment fabulous queen angel, At the last chance in the final moment in the final chapter of the story of life grief and suffering prevail ever since everything was lost In the end comes regret When the time has come to realize and know the truth it's already too late to feel it To feel the love that knows no bounds In a person's life there are many trials many problems But you can overcome them if you trust yourself and have faith in Him Life's wheel keeps turning round and round repeating yet we continue to live to love and to be loved There are times when certain things memories or whatever it may be must be forgotten must be erased from our minds because they bring pain when recalled or evoke anger and guilt in life Some are brought together by destiny some are separated but there are memories that cannot be erased for a lifetime A past that should be revisited remembered and valued as long as it's in our minds In the final moment of my life I am with her In the final moment I held her In the final moment I saw her smile And in the final moment we will leave this world peacefully and together heading to the afterlife And in the next life it will still be her and me until the last moment of my life True love will never disappear but if it's a lie it will In the name of love anything can be done no matter what A love tested by fate hindered by destiny but fought for until the last moment of love Inspired by the song Huling Sandali by the band December Avenue a story filled with love liberation appreciation and sacrifice for family friends and the beloved And a love that is fought for even unto death Love can sacrifice everything true love never fades unless it was a lie Huling Sandali I Do Charlotte L R Kane, 2014-07-11 Bryony Carlson just wants to get married and live her life happily with her fiancée But that is all put on hold when she finds herself possessed by a 50 year old ghost who is looking to seek revenge as she was murdered on her wedding day Bryony tries to carry on with the wedding planning but the ghost has different ideas as she is not happy that Bryony isn't giving her the attention that she demands Will Bryony be able to have her happy ending or will the ghost be too powerful for her

A Hundred Years of Bibliotherapy Siobhan Campbell, Sara Haslam, Edmund G. C. King, 2025-05-16 The First World War gave new and vital impetus to the ancient idea that books could heal This interdisciplinary collection provides a targeted survey of 100 years of historical and contemporary understandings and practices of the book as cure The contributors explore the curative practices of wartime reading how they were developed and institutionalized after the war and the afterlives of these ideas and practices today Divided into three sections the first considers bibliotherapy in World War I It is rooted in the wartime cultures which ensured bibliotherapy became part of the active treatment of soldiers damaged minds and bodies on both sides of the Atlantic after 1914 Parts two and three examine the expanding variety of critical contexts both historical and more modern in which reading and wellbeing continued to intersect The chapters draw on a wide range of source material from trench magazines to autograph books to e novels as well as on data and information drawn from practice based encounters They also provide the basis for further scholarly exploration of for example national traditions and contexts and the inter disciplinary relationships which they inspire A Hundred Years of Bibliotherapy Healing through Books provides the first interdisciplinary dialogue on and account of bibliotherapy addressing both historical and present day modes of engaging with the ostensibly curative power of reading and reading cultures It is an invaluable resource for scholars of literary studies book history and the medical humanities
