Teaching a Struggling Reader: One Mom's Experience with Dyslexia Pamela Brookes, 2018-11-07 There are a lot of children and adults who struggle with reading Some are helped by their schools some are not In this short booklet Pamela Brookes shares some of the basic information she wishes she d had when she was first trying to figure out how to help her child learn to read Teaching A Struggling Reader One Mom s Experience with Dyslexia is filled with links to informational and product resources for parents or teachers It is geared to people who want to educate themselves in the methods that are effective in teaching those with dyslexia It also contains photos demonstrating basic techniques like Tapping using one s fingers to aid in sounding out words and Making your bed to differentiate between b and d This Third Edition includes new information and new links including the social and economic impacts of illiteracy It also contains information on Early Intervention including what parents can do if they suspect their young child may have dyslexia during the toddler and preschool years and a section on What if It s NOT Dyslexia This is a booklet that can be read in one sitting However there are ample links to provide an even greater experience The hyperlinks are active in the e book format All DOG ON A LOG Books follow a systematic structured literacy Orton Gillingham based phonics sequence

The B Word Maria San Filippo, 2013-04-12 Often disguised in public discourse by terms like gay homoerotic homosocial or queer bisexuality is strangely absent from queer studies and virtually untreated in film and media criticism Maria San Filippo aims to explore the central role bisexuality plays in contemporary screen culture establishing its importance in representation marketing and spectatorship By examining a variety of media genres including art cinema sexploitation cinema and vampire films bromances and series television San Filippo discovers missed moments where bisexual readings of these texts reveal a more malleable notion of subjectivity and eroticism San Filippo s work moves beyond the subject of heteronormativity and responds to compulsory monosexuality where it s not necessarily a couple s gender that is at issue but rather that an individual chooses one or the other The B Word transcends dominant relational formation gay straight or otherwise and brings a discursive voice to the field of queer and film studies
