Ozeki, 2014 Within the pages of this book lies the diary of a girl called Nao It will change the life of the person who finds it It might just change yours too Ruth discovers a Hello Kitty lunchbox washed up on the shore of her Canadian beach home She suspects it might be debris from the 2011 tsunami Within it lies a diary that expresses the hopes and dreams of a young girl With every turn of the page she is sucked deeper into an enchanting mystery in which 16 year old Nao Yasutani is trying to find a reader and friend who finally understands her Weaving across continents and decades A Tale for the Time Being is an extraordinary novel about our shared humanity and the search for home This novel on belonging and time is a triumph SUNDAY TIMES A Tale for the Time Being is a timeless story a deeply intelligent and humane writer who offers her insights with a grace that beguiles I truly love this novel ALICE SEBOLD author of The Lovely Bones

Novel Ecologies Allison Carruth, 2025-03-04 Tracing the convergence of ecology and engineering over the last three decades this book pinpoints a new environmental paradigm that the author calls Nature Remade Allison Carruth s Novel Ecologies shows how the tech industry has taken up the wilderness mythologies that shaped one strain of American environmentalism over the last century Calling this twenty first century environmental imagination Nature Remade Carruth describes a distinctly West Coast framework that is at once nostalgic and futuristic Through three case studies synthetic wildlife the digital cloud and space colonization the book shows Nature Remade to be a quasi religious belief in venture capitalism and big tech This paradigm thus imagines a future in which species ecosystems and entire planets are re generated and re created through engineering Novel Ecologies challenges the conviction that climate change and other environmental crises must be met with ever larger scale forms of technological intervention Against the new worlds conjured by Google Meta Open AI Amazon SpaceX and a host of lesser known start ups Carruth marshals writers and artists who imagine provisionally hopeful environmental futures while refusing to forget the histories that have made the world what it is On this track of the book Carruth discusses the works of Octavia

Butler Becky Chambers Jennifer Egan Ruth Ozeki Craig Santos Perez Tracy K Smith Jeff VanderMeer Saya Woolfalk and many more Their novels poems installation artworks and expressive media offer a speculative world built on livable communities rather than engineered lifeforms Feminism Enchanted Yanbing Er, 2025-09-16 The feminist movement has long been guided by the promise of progress for women politically economically and in personal life But we live in a time when history appears to be moving backward into a more reactionary past How might feminist thought make sense of this plight without returning to the liberal Western framework of progressive reason Yanbing Er argues that the key to this predicament lies in the capacity of the literary imagination to invigorate feminist critical practice She reveals how a literary mode of enchantment fundamentally transforms feminist theory and praxis imagining new and surprising possibilities that had once been foreclosed by dominant paradigms of progress Enchantment illuminates forms of existence that have been lost erased or obscured allowing us to encounter both feminism and the world anew Er finds incantatory power in the works of writers such as Rivers Solomon Akwaeke Emezi Ruth Ozeki and Alexis Wright who disrupt hegemonic ways of thinking by summoning otherwise unimaginable ways of being Their works collectively present an immersive and expansive feminist imaginary that makes space for marginalized histories narratives and lifeworlds Elegantly written and boldly argued Feminism Enchanted shows how poetic language conjures alternative futures for feminist thought The Story of "Me" Marjorie Worthington, 2018-11-01 Autofiction or works in which the eponymous author appears as a fictionalized character represents a significant trend in postwar American literature when it proliferated to become a kind of postmodern cliché The Story of Me charts the history and development of this genre analyzing its narratological effects and discussing its cultural implications By tracing autofiction's conceptual issues through case studies and an array of texts Marjorie Worthington sheds light on a number of issues for postwar American writing the maleness of the postmodern canon and anxieties created by the supposed waning of male privilege the relationship between celebrity and authorship the influence of theory the angst stemming from claims of the death of the author and the rise of memoir culture Worthington constructs and contextualizes a bridge between the French literary context from which the term originated and the rise of autofiction among various American literary movements from modernism to New Criticism to New Journalism The Story of Me demonstrates that the burgeoning of autofiction serves as a barometer of American literature from modernist authorial effacement to postmodern literary self consciousness Culturally Responsive Reading Durthy A. Washington, 2023 A book that is brilliantly incisive and generative beyond words Culturally Responsive Reading is a gift that will be welcomed in classrooms everywhere Junot Diaz author This Is How You Lose Her Help students to explore the intertextuality of literature and to think more deeply and compassionately about the world This book shows high school teachers and college instructors how to foreground a work's cultural context recognizing that every culture has its own narrative tradition of oral and written classics that inform its literature The author introduces readers to the LIST Paradigm a guided approach to culturally responsive reading that encourages readers to access and analyze a text by asking significant questions designed to foster close critical reading By combining aspects of both literary analysis exploring the elements of fiction such as plot setting and character and literary criticism exploring works from multiple perspectives such as historical psychological and archetypal the LIST Paradigm helps educators unlock literature with four keys to culture Language Identity Space and Time In Culturally Responsive Reading Washington exposes cultural myths reveals racist and culturally biased language dismantles stereotypes and prevents the egregious misreading of works written by people of color Book Features Describes a unique approach to culturally responsive reading including specific teaching strategies and rich classroom examples Explores numerous texts by writers of color that are rarely included as required reading in literature courses Provides examples and illustrations of innovative ways to incorporate multicultural texts into an introductory literature course Incorporates epigraphs and questions that highlight each component of the LIST approach Includes a critical essay that guides teachers through the process of teaching a complex postmodern novel Junot Diaz's The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao Novels by Aliens Kate Marshall, 2023-10-10 A wide ranging account of the twenty first century's fascination with the weird Twenty first century fiction and theory have taken a decidedly weird turn They both show a marked interest in the nonhuman and in the preternatural moods that the nonhuman often evokes Writers of fiction and criticism are avidly experimenting with strange even alien perspectives and protagonists Kate Marshall's Novels by Aliens explores this development broadly while focusing on problems of genre fiction She identifies three key generic hybrids that harness a longing for the nonhuman the old weird an alternative tradition within naturalism and modernism for the twenty first century's cowboys and aliens cosmic realism the reach for words legible only from space in otherwise terrestrial narratives and pseudoscience fiction which imagines speculative futures beyond human life on earth Offering sharp and surprising insights about a breathtaking range of authors from Edgar Rice Burroughs to Kazuo Ishiguro Willa Cather to Maggie Nelson Novels by Aliens tells the story of how genre became mood in the twenty first century Ecocriticism and Asian American Literature Begoña Simal-González, 2020-01-24 Ecocriticism and Asian American Literature Gold Mountains Weedflowers and Murky Globes offers an ecocritical reinterpretation of Asian American literature The book considers more than a century of Asian American writing from Eaton's Mrs Spring Fragrance 1912 to Ozeki's A Tale for the Time Being 2013 through an ecocritical lens The volume explores the most relevant landmarks in Asian American literature the first contact narratives written by Bulosan Kingston Mukherjee and Jen the controversial texts published by Sui Sin Far Edith Eaton at the time of the Yellow Peril the rise of cultural nationalism in the 1970s and 1980s illustrated by Wong's Homepage and Kingston's China Men old and recent examples of internment literature dealing with the incarceration of Japanese Americans during WWII Sone Houston Miyake Kadohata and the new trends in Asian American literature since the 1990s exemplified by Yamashita's and Ozeki's novels which explore the challenges of our transnational transnatural era Begoña Simal González's ecocritical readings of these texts provide crucial interdisciplinary insights addressing and analyzing important narratives within Asian American culture and literature

Asian American Fiction After 1965 Christopher T. Fan, 2024-04-23 After the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act loosened discriminatory restrictions people from Northeast Asian countries such as South Korea Taiwan Japan and eventually China immigrated to the United States in large numbers Highly skilled Asian immigrants flocked to professional managerial occupations especially in science technology engineering and math Asian American literature is now overwhelmingly defined by this generation's children who often struggled with parental and social expectations that they would pursue lucrative careers on their way to becoming writers Christopher T Fan offers a new way to understand Asian American fiction through the lens of the class and race formations that shaped its authors both in the United States and in Northeast Asia In readings of writers including Ted Chiang Chang rae Lee Ken Liu Ling Ma Ruth Ozeki Kathy Wang and Charles Yu he examines how Asian American fiction maps the immigrant narrative of intergenerational conflict onto the two cultures conflict between the arts and sciences Fan argues that the self consciousness found in these writers works is a legacy of Japanese and American modernization projects that emphasized technical and scientific skills in service of rapid industrialization He considers Asian American writers attraction to science fiction the figure of the engineer and notions of the postracial modernization theory and time travel and what happens when the dream of a stable professional identity encounters the realities of deprofessionalization and proletarianization Through a transnational and historical materialist approach this groundbreaking book illuminates what makes texts and authors Asian American

Experiencing Epiphanies in Literature and Cinema

Bradley Lewis, 2024-07-09 Experiencing Epiphanies in Literature and Cinema uses health humanities and psychological humanities to explore literary and cinematic epiphanies James Joyce first adopted the term epiphany from its religious use to articulate moments of luminous intensity or sudden spiritual manifestation This study develops and extends Joyce's use of epiphany through a range of literary and cinematic examples from William Shakespeare to Ruth Ozeki and from Yasujir Ozu to Jim Jarmusch This wealth of epiphanies in the arts is important from a health humanities perspective in that they provide access to aesthetic and sustainable experiences of well being joy and human flowering They also provide antidotes to aesthetics of anti epiphany a showing forth of terror horror and panic Experiencing Epiphanies is accordingly both critical and affirmative diagnostic and therapeutic It uses critique to understand the increasing need for well being in contemporary times and it uses affirmation to develop underutilized resources in the arts for transforming configuring and refiguring our everyday lives

Writing Backwards Alexander Manshel, 2023-11-21 Finalist 2025 SHARP Book History Book Prize Society for the Study of the History of Authorship Reading and Publishing Contemporary fiction has never been less contemporary Midcentury writers tended to set their works in their own moment but for the last several decades critical acclaim and attention have fixated on historical fiction This shift is particularly dramatic for writers of color Even as the literary canon has become more diverse cultural institutions have celebrated Black Asian American Latinx and Indigenous novelists almost exclusively for their historical fiction Writing Backwards explores what the dominance of historical fiction in the contemporary canon reveals about American literary culture Alexander Manshel investigates the most celebrated historical genres contemporary narratives of slavery the World War II novel the multigenerational family saga immigrant fiction and the novel of recent history alongside the literary and academic institutions that have elevated them He examines novels by writers including Toni Morrison Viet Thanh Nguyen Colson Whitehead Julia Alvarez Leslie Marmon Silko Michael Chabon Julie Otsuka Yaa Gyasi Ben Lerner and Tommy Orange in the context of MFA programs literary prizes university syllabi book clubs and the National Endowment for the Arts Manshel studies how historical fiction has evolved over the last half century documenting the formation of the newly inclusive literary canon as well as who and what it still excludes Offering new insight into how institutions shape literature and the limits of historical memory Writing Backwards also considers recent challenges to the historical turn in American fiction

Fact and Fiction in Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber, Alice Bell, 2021-05-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies

Harbors, Flows, and Migrations Anna De Biasio, Gianna Fusco, 2017-05-11 Poised between the land and the sea enabling the dynamic flow of people and goods while also figuratively representing a safe place of rest and refuge the harbor constitutes a liminal ambivalent space par excellence that has been central to the American imagination and history since the early colonial days From the mythical tales of discovery and foundation to the endless flows of migrants through the dark pages of the slave trade and the imperialistic dream of an ever expanding nation harbors both as a trope and as physical spaces powerfully signify the American experience Today at a time when ideas of border protection and policing gain political prominence in the U S and elsewhere harbors and the constellation of meanings they subsume have become an even more crucial object of critical inquiry In this volume thirty two American Studies scholars from around the world interrogate the manifold significance of ports and of the exchanges they enable or restrain casting a decentered look onto the complex positioning of the United States in its political ideological and cultural relationships with the rest of the world This collection thus offers a cutting edge interdisciplinary investigation of the U S A engaging the most recent trends in American Studies and actively participating in the international and transnational reconfiguration of the field

(Eco)Anxiety in Nuclear Holocaust Fiction and Climate Fiction Dominika Oramus,2023-07-07 Eco Anxiety in Nuclear Holocaust Fiction and Climate Fiction Domsday Clock Narratives demonstrates that disaster fiction nuclear holocaust and climate change alike allows us to unearth and anatomise contemporary psychodynamics and enables us to identify pretraumatic stress as the common denominator of seemingly unrelated types of texts These Domsday Clock Narratives argue that earth s demise is soon and certain They are set after some catastrophe and depict people waiting for an even worse catastrophe to come References to geology are particularly important in descriptions of the landscape the emphasis falls on waste and industrial bric a brac which is seen through the eyes of a future posthuman archaeologist Their protagonists have the uncanny feeling that the countdown has already started and they are coping with both traumatic memories and pretraumatic stress Readings of novels by Walter M Miller Nevil Shute John Christopher J G Ballard George Turner Maggie Gee Paolo Bacigalupi Ruth Ozeki and Yoko Tawada demonstrate that the authors are both indebted to a century old tradition and inventively looking for new ways of expressing the pretraumatic stress syndrome common in contemporary society This book is written for an academic audience postgraduates researchers and academics specialising in British Literature American Literature and Science Fiction Studies

Emerging from the Rubble: Asian/American Writings on Disasters Yasuko Kase,Eliko Kosaka,2025-08-12 With a focus on the transpacific and transnational relationship between North America and Asia Emerging from the Rubble Asian American Writings on Disasters explores Asian Americans complex and nuanced involvement in disastrous events Included in this purview of disaster are not only the damages and threats of current ongoing climate change but also the long lasting ruining effects inflicted by imperialism neo colonialism wars and these historical components entanglement with global capitalism that have generated both spontaneous and slow and or prolonged violent effects Moreover disasters can be acknowledged as manifestations of the Anthropocene an epoch shaped by human activity or what scholars like Jason W Moore and Donna J Harraway term the Capitalocene a paradigm where nature and capitalist society are deeply intertwined co creating an intricate web of life Asian American involvement in such a web has never been simple but convoluted some of them have experienced tremendous losses whereas others have perpetuated obfuscation of the truth and or induced violence

often contingently with or without acknowledging the facts When considering Asian migrants including refugees from Southeast Asia who had little option but to seek asylum in the U S and Asian Americans who have pursued their happiness under the U S s capitalist premise of constant progress protection of human rights and freedom of choice it is important to note that Asian migrants and Asian Americans have become simultaneously active players and exploited individuals within the context of U S racial capitalism Acknowledging the impossibility of clearly differentiating natural and human made disasters scholars who contribute to this volume note the reciprocal influences between nature and civilization They examine how the entanglements of natural and human made disasters lead to the acceleration and expansion of damage This volume explores how Asian Americans connections with their ancestral origins along with their particular racial positions social classes and socio historical backgrounds in North American societies force them to experience and witness disastrous events differently from the mainstream discourse on eco crises Victimhood and Vulnerability in 21st Century Fiction Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2017-04-21 New Visibilities Victimhood and Other Forms of Vulnerability in 21st century Fiction eds Jean Michel Ganteau and Susana Onega addresses the relationship between trauma and ethics and moves one step further to engage with vulnerability studies in their relation to literature and literary form It consists of an introduction and of twelve articles written by specialists from various European countries and includes an interview with US novelist Jayne Anne Philips conducted by her translator into French Marc Amfreville addressing her latest novel Quiet Dell through the victimhood vulnerability prism The corpus of primary sources on which the volume is based draws on various literary backgrounds in English from Britain to India through the USA All contributions are original
